During the 2024 financial year, 19,323,660 shares have been delivered to the directors as remuneration.

A.10 Provide details of the conditions and term of the current authority conferred by the shareholders' meeting on the Board of Directors to issue, buy back or transfer treasury stock.

The General Shareholders' Meeting held on 7 June 2022 delegated to the Board of Directors the power to increase the share capital, for a maximum period of five years, up to a maximum nominal amount not exceeding the half of it on the date of the authorisation, within the limits and with the requirements established in the Capital Companies Law, with attribution of the power to exclude the preferential subscription right to a maximum of 20% of the share capital on the date of the authorisation. This agreement superseded, in the unused portion, the corresponding agreement adopted by the Board on 31 July 2020.

Also, at the General Shareholders' Meeting of 7 June 2022, it was agreed to authorise the Board of Directors, with express power of substitution and for a maximum period of five years, to issue convertible securities in, or with the right to subscribe, new shares of the Company, for a maximum amount of €500,000,000, and to exclude the preferential subscription right. This last power is limited to a maximum of 20% of the share capital on the date of authorisation. This agreement superseded, in the unused portion, the corresponding agreement adopted by the Board on 31 July 2020.

Lastly, the Shareholders' Meeting held on 28 June 2023 expressly resolved to authorise the Board of Directors, with express powers of delegation, in accordance with the terms of Article 146 of the Capital Companies Law, to proceed with the derivative acquisition of the Company's shares under the following conditions:

(a) The purchases may be made directly by the Company or indirectly through its dependent companies under the same terms of said resolution.

(b) The purchases will be made through purchase, exchange, or any other operations permitted by law.

(c) The purchases may be made at any time up to the maximum amount permitted by the law.

(d) The purchases may not be made at a price exceeding the share price or less than the par value of the share.

(e) This authorisation is granted for a maximum term of five years from the time of said resolution.

(f) As a result of the purchase of shares, including those that the Company or the person acting in their own name but on behalf of the Company had acquired previously and had in their portfolio, the resulting equity may not be reduced to an amount less than the sum of the share capital plus the restricted legal or bylaw reserves, all in accordance with Article 146.1.b) of the Capital Companies Law.

It was expressly stated that shares purchased as a result of this authorisation may be used both for transfer or redemption and for application of the remuneration systems considered in paragraph three a) of Article 146.1 of the Capital Companies Law, in addition to carrying out the programs which will foster participation in the Company's capital such as, for example, dividend reinvestment plans, incentive plans and other analogous instruments.

A.11 Estimated floating capital:

If so, indicate the various classes of shares and, for each class of shares, the rights and obligations they confer:

B SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING

B.1 Indicate and describe any differences with respect to the minimum rules established in the Capital Companies Law (LSC) regarding the quorum required for the constitution of the shareholders' meeting.

Yes ☐

No ☒

B.2 Indicate and, as applicable, describe any differences with respect to the rules established in the Capital Companies Law (LSC) for the adoption of corporate resolutions:

Yes ☐

No ☒

B.3 Indicate the rules governing amendments to the Company's bylaws. In particular, indicate the majorities required to amend the bylaws and any rules to protect shareholders' rights when amending the bylaws.

The rules applicable are in line with the regulations established in the Capital Companies Law. Therefore, in accordance with Article 16 of the Bylaws, the Shareholders' Meeting is the body with jurisdiction to amend the Bylaws. With respect to the right to information in the case of amendment, Article 19 of the Bylaws establishes that, in addition to the information required by law, the call notice must include the right corresponding to all the shareholders to examine at the registered office the complete text of the amendment proposed and the report on it, and to request the delivery or free shipment of these documents.

Likewise, under Article 286 of the Capital Companies Law, where an amendment is proposed to the Bylaws, the directors must draft the full text of the proposed amendment and a report justifying it, which must be made available to the shareholders with the notice of call of the Shareholders' Meeting that is to deliberate on such amendment.

With respect to the quorum and the majorities needed to approve an amendment to the Bylaws of DIA, Article 23 of the Bylaws, pursuant to Article 194 of the Capital Companies Law, requires that, in order for the Shareholders' Meeting to be validly convened at first call, shareholders holding at least 50% of the subscribed voting capital must be present in person or by proxy. At second call, it will suffice for 25% of the capital to attend. In order to adopt a resolution to amend the Bylaws, pursuant to Article 201 of the Capital Companies Law, if the capital present in person or by proxy exceeds 50%, at first or second call, it will suffice for the resolution to be adopted by absolute majority. However, the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the capital present in person or by proxy at the Meeting will be necessary if, at second call, shareholders representing 25% or more of the subscribed voting capital without reaching 50% are present.

B.4 Give details of attendance at Shareholders' Meetings held during the reporting year and the two previous years:

C.1.5 Indicate whether the company has diversity policies in relation to its Board of Directors on such questions as, for example, age, gender, disability, training and professional experience. Pursuant to the definition stated in the Audit Law, small and medium-sized enterprises must at least indicate the policy established in relation to gender diversity.

Yes ☒

No ☐

Partial policies ☐

If so, describe the diversity policies, their objectives, the measures and the way in which they were applied and their results during the year. Also indicate the specific measures adopted by the Board of Directors, and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee to achieve a balanced and diverse presence of directors.

If the company does not apply a diversity policy, explain why.

Description of the policies, their objectives, the measures and the way in which they were applied and their results
In accordance with Article 11 of DIA's Board Regulations, the Board will ensure that all director selection procedures promote gender diversity, as well as diverse experience and knowledge, with no implicit biases that may entail discrimination or, in particular, hinder the selection of female directors. The Director Selection Policy (approved in December 2015 and based on the current Article 11 of the Board Regulations) establishes, among others, the following principles which guide the director selection procedures: • It must not have an implicit bias nor discriminate on grounds of race, gender or any other type. • It must favour diversity of knowledge, experience and gender among the Board. • It must enable the Board of Directors to have diversity and plurality regarding the members' training, culture and internationalisation. • To avoid hampering the selection of female directors, the Company must deliberately seek and include, among the potential candidates, women who meet the professional profile requirements with the target that in the following years the number of female directors should represent at least 30% of all the members of the Board of Directors. • It must achieve a balanced composition, structure and size of the Board as a whole, which enriches decision-making and contributes multiple viewpoints to debates with an ample majority of non-executive directors, with the necessary minimum number of executive directors and ensuring that the proportion that may exist between nominee and non-executive directors respects the guidelines established in the Board Regulations.

Likewise, the Selection Policy requires that all the candidates must have the necessary training, qualifications and professional experience, thus favouring the Board's cultural diversity and internationalisation.

The recent experience in applying such rules shows that age, disability or gender are not an obstacle to joining the Company's Board and, where applicable, retaining the talent in the last few years.

Lastly, upon issuance of the call notice for each Shareholders' Meeting in which proposals for appointment, ratification and re-election of the Board members are submitted to the shareholders for consideration, the corresponding reports from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and from the Board of Directors are made available to them. These reports include the Board's assessment of the competence, experience and merits of the various candidates as well as their suitability for fulfilling their duties as directors.

In line with the above, and as stated in the reports made available to the shareholders, the director selections (apart from those proposed by the significant shareholders) have followed the guidelines envisaged in the Director Selection Policy approved by the Company on 11 December 2015 and, as stated above, the aforementioned guiding principles, as well as their diversity objectives, were respected. Said objectives were partially met in 2024. The Board will endeavour to ensure that the successive searches to select candidates to fill the existing vacancy, when appropriate, enable it to approach the target of 40% of female directors set for the following years.

C.1.6 Explain the measures that may have been agreed by the nomination committee so that the selection procedures do not include any implicit bias that prevent the selection of female directors, and so that the company deliberately searches for and includes women with the appropriate profile among the potential candidates, enabling it to reach a balanced presence of women and men. Indicate as well whether these measures include encouraging the company to have a significant number of female senior executives:

Explanation of the measures
In accordance with the provisions derived from amendments made to the Capital Companies Law in corporate governance matters, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has been entrusted with establishing a representation target for the least represented gender on the Board and has drawn up guidelines on how to achieve this target. Likewise, the Appointments and Compensation Committee has monitored and verified compliance with the Director Selection Policy (approved in December 2015, and inspired by the current article 11 of the Board Regulations).
Within the DIA Group's internal regulations, the binding rule on hiring people, which affects executive personnel recruitment processes, establishes that, under equal conditions, the hiring of the under-represented gender will be given priority in the recruitment process.
As a result of such efforts, the Company now meets the target set out in Recommendation 14 of the Code of Good Governance.

When, despite the measures taken, there are few or no female directors or female senior executives, explain the reasons why:

Explanation of the reasons
The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is aware that it does not currently comply with the corporate governance recommendation regarding the percentage of female directors and, accordingly, is taking the necessary measures to try to increase the number of women on the Board of Directors and in senior management. However, this increase at the Board can only take place when new candidates are selected to fill future vacancies on the board, such vacancies haven't not occurred in year 2024.

C.1.7 Explain the conclusions of the nomination committee regarding verification of compliance with the policy aimed at promoting an appropriate composition of the Board of Directors.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors will ensure that all director selection procedures promote gender diversity, as well as diverse experience and knowledge, with no implicit biases that may hinder the selection of female directors, ensuring that the Company deliberately looks for, and includes among potential candidates, any women who meet the professional profile sought.

C.1.8 Explain, if applicable, the reasons why nominee directors have been appointed at the request of shareholders holding less than 3% of the share capital:

Name or corporate name of shareholder	Reason
No data

Give details of any rejections of formal requests for Board representation from shareholders whose shareholding is equal to or greater than that of other shareholders who have successfully requested the appointment of nominee directors. As applicable, explain why these requests have not been entertained:

Yes ☐

No ☒

C1.9 Indicate the powers, if any, delegated by the Board of Directors, including those relating to the option of issuing or re-purchasing shares, to directors or Board committees:

Name or company name of director or committee	Brief description
No data

C.1.10 Identify any members of the Board who are also directors, representatives of directors or managers in other companies forming part of the listed company's group:

C.1.12 Indicate whether the company has established rules on the maximum number of company boards on which its directors may sit, explaining if necessary, and identifying where this is regulated, if applicable:

Yes ☒

No ☐

Explanation of the rules and identification of the document where they are regulated
Article 25.4 of the Board Regulations establishes that a director must not sit – in addition to the Company Board – on more than six boards of directors of other companies. To this end, any boards to which a director belongs as a nominee director, proposed by the Company or by any group company, will not be taken into account; nor will other appointments be taken into account if the director is not actually and truly dedicated to a commercial activity. Holding companies or companies which are merely investment vehicles are excluded for these purposes. Moreover, companies belonging to the same group shall be treated as a single company.

C.1.13 Indicate the amounts of the remuneration received by the Board of Directors for the following items:

Remuneration accrued by the board of directors during the year (thousands of euros)	1,136
Amount of funds accumulated by current directors for long-term savings systems with vested economic rights (thousands of euros)
Amount of funds accumulated by current directors for long-term savings systems with unvested economic rights (thousands of euros)
Amount of funds accumulated by former directors for long-term savings systems (thousands of euros)

C.1.14 Identify the members of senior management who are not, in turn, executive directors, and indicate the total remuneration paid to them during the year:

This section shows the people who form part of the Group's senior management on 31 December 2023.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the amount reflected in this section indicates the total amount received by the members of senior management throughout the fiscal year and, therefore, also includes the amounts received by individuals who would not currently be categorized as such, such as Mr. Andrés Vegas Aneiros, Mr. Miguel Silva, Mr. Pedro Devesa, Mr. Marcio Barros, Mr. Sebastien Durchon, and Mr. José María Jiménez Millares.

C.1.15 Indicate whether the Board regulations were amended in any way during the year:

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.16 Specify the procedures for the selection, appointment, re-election and removal of directors. List the competent bodies, procedures to be followed and criteria to be used for each of these procedures.

I. Selection, appointment and re-election

The selection, appointment and re-election of directors is regulated in Articles 5, 11, 12, 24 and 32 of the Board Regulations, as well as in the Director Selection Policy, approved by the Board at its meeting on 11 December 2015.

The bodies in charge of selecting and appointing the directors will ensure that they are honourable, suitable, of reputed solvency, competence and experience, and will be particularly strict in relation to any persons appointed to cover independent director positions or to belong to the committees.

As regards the selection process, the Board of Directors, as part of its non-delegable powers, will resolve, if applicable, whether it is adequate to (i) appoint a new director by co-option to cover any vacancy; (ii) propose to the Shareholders' Meeting the appointment or ratification of a director and/or increase the number of Board members; (iii) fulfil a shareholder's request to uphold its right of proportional representation; or (iv) appraise the possible re-election of a director whose term is nearing expiration.

In any of the foregoing cases the Board, or its chairperson, on its behalf, will formally entrust the Nomination and Remuneration Committee with an examination and, where appropriate, selection of directors among the candidates.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee, further to express instructions from the Board of Directors, will convene as soon as possible in order to begin the selection process, and may be assisted by independent professionals specialising in selection processes and head hunting, in order to find the most suitable candidates.

Once the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has selected the directors, it will individually interview each candidate separately. The opinions gathered on the various candidates will be jointly examined and the relevant conclusions drawn, which will be recorded in an explanatory report from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, to be submitted to the Board.

Any proposal to the Shareholders' Meeting will in any case include an explanatory report from the Board of Directors, evaluating the competence, experience and merits of the candidate proposed; this will be attached to the Minutes of the Shareholders' Meeting or the Board meeting.

The candidates chosen must contribute with their profile to make sure that they have (i) ample knowledge and experience in the sectors (especially consumer goods and retail) and in the Spanish and foreign markets where DIA operates, as well as the economic and financial factors (with special competences, experience and knowledge on accounting and risk management matters); (ii) a strong strategic international vision for businesses and extensive experience in business management, leadership and strategy; (iii) maximum level of ethics, representation and respect for the business community in general; and (iv) maximum level of loyalty, commitment and sufficient dedication to the Company's project.

The diversity in the group of directors and the various origins and profiles of each Board member are expected to meet the Company's current and future strategic needs.

If the Board of Directors does not follow the proposals and reports provided by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, it must explain the reasons for its actions and duly record this in the Minutes.

All directors will be appointed by the Shareholders' Meeting or Board of Directors, as the case may be, following the provisions of the Capital Companies Law, the Bylaws and the Board Regulations, as well as the Director Selection Policy, approved by the Board on its meeting dated 11 December 2015.

An appointment will be announced to the market and, after a Shareholders' Meeting is called, the résumé of the candidate will be made available to the shareholders, as well as an explanatory report from the Board of Directors and from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, as the case may be, on the Company's website.

II. Evaluation

Article 7 of the Board Regulations establishes that the quality and efficiency of the Board will be evaluated once a year, as well as performance by the Board chairperson and Company CEO, the operation and composition of its committees, diversity in Board composition and competences, and the performance and contribution made by each director, particularly examining the managers of the various Committees.

In order to evaluate the various Committees, the reports submitted by the latter to the Board will be examined. When evaluating the Board, the report submitted by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will be taken into account.

This task is covered by the policy to fulfil corporate governance rules applicable to the Company, thereby fulfilling Recommendation number 36 of the Good Governance Code.

III. Removal

Article 13 of the Board Regulations establishes that directors will no longer hold office upon the expiration of their term, if so resolved by the Shareholders' Meeting in the exercise of its powers, or when a director resigns or is dismissed.

Any directors affected by proposed removals will refrain from participating in any related discussion and vote.

The Board of Directors may only propose the removal of an independent director before expiration of the bylaw term where there is just cause, ascertained by the Board of Directors after receiving a report from the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. For these purposes, a breach of the duties inherent to their position will be considered as such, having incurred in any of the circumstances that cause them to lose their independent status or that the director goes on to occupy new positions or incurs new obligations that prevent them from dedicating the necessary time to the duties of the position of director. The removal may also be proposed as a result of tender offers, mergers or other similar corporate transactions that significantly change the Company's capital structure.

C.1.17 Explain to what extent the annual evaluation of the Board has given rise to significant changes in its internal organisation and in the procedures applicable to its activities:

Description of amendments
The Board of Directors, at the proposal of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, contracted the services of a specialised company (Russell Reynolds) in order to carry out an exercise of evaluation of the performance of the Board of Directors and its Commissions with the help of an external consultant. The main conclusions of the evaluation report by Russell Reynolds were presented, after having been considered by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, at the meeting of the Board of Directors on 26 February 20225 and, based on them, it has been approved to prepare an action plan to implement the recommendations made by the external consultant and approved by the Board of Directors at the proposal of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, this plan to be developed during the 2025 financial year and beyond. While the consultant concluded that, in general, the DIA Board of Directors performs its functions adequately, Russell Reynolds' recommendations primarily focused on areas of attention to improve the efficiency of the Board of Directors and its Committees.

Describe the evaluation process and the areas evaluated by the Board of Directors, with the assistance of an external consultant, as the case may be, with respect to the operation and composition of the Board and its committees and any other areas or features that has been evaluated.

Description of the evaluation process and the areas evaluated
The evaluation of the performance of the Board of Directors and its Commissions in 2024 has not been carried out with the support of a specialised external consultant Russell Reynolds, which will contribute to increase the effectiveness in the organisation and topics to be discussed in meetings of both the Board of Directors and its Commissions, and will channel the contribution of value of the Directors both within the Board of Directors and in their relationships with Management and their participation in the definition of the business strategy.
To prepare this report, interviews were conducted with all members of the Board of Directors to gather their assessment of the functioning of the Board of Directors and its Committees, as well as new areas of action for the future.

C.1.18 Breakdown in those years in which the evaluation has been assisted by an external auditor, the business dealings that the consultant or any company in its group has with the company or any company in its group.

There is no business relationship between the Company (or any company in its Group) and the external advisor (or any company in its Group) to report.

C.1.19 Indicate the cases in which directors are obliged to resign.

The Regulations of the Board of Directors regulate this aspect in Article 13, which stipulates that Directors must tender their resignation to the Board of Directors and complete the corresponding resignation if the Board deems it appropriate, in the following cases:

(a) When they are involved in any of the cases of conflicts of interest or prohibition provided for in the law, the Articles of association and the Board Regulations;

(b) When situations affecting them, whether or not related to their performance at the Company, could damage the good name or reputation of the Company or they lose the commercial and professional good repute required to be a director of the Company;

(c) When they cease to hold the executive positions to which, if applicable, their appointment as a Director is linked;

(d) When the Board of Directors determines that they have seriously breached their obligations in the performance of their functions as a Director;

(e) When their continuance on the Board of Directors may jeopardise, directly, indirectly or through related persons, the loyal and diligent performance of their duties as Directors or the interests of the Company, or when the reasons for which they were appointed cease to exist. In particular, in the case of non-executive nominee Directors, when the shareholder they represent sells or transfers all or part of its holding, with the result that it is no longer significant or sufficient to justify the appointment.

In any of the cases specified above, the Board of Directors, given the specific circumstances, may require the board member to resign from their position, and propose the director's removal to the Shareholders' Meeting, where applicable.

Any Directors affected by proposed removals will refrain from participating in any related discussion and vote.

When a Director leaves office before the end of their term of office, whether by resignation or otherwise, they shall sufficiently explain the reasons for their resignation or, in the case of non-executive Directors, their views on the reasons for the removal by the General Shareholders' Meeting, in a letter to be sent to all members of the Board of Directors. The reasons stated therein shall be mentioned in the annual corporate governance report, although, to the extent relevant for investors, the Company shall publish the removal as soon as possible, including sufficient reference to the reasons or circumstances provided by the director.

C.1.20 Are qualified majorities other than those established by law required for any particular kind of decision?

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.21 Indicate whether there are any specific requirements, apart from those relating to the Directors, to be appointed chairperson of the Board of Directors.

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.22 Indicate whether the bylaws or Board regulations set an age limit for directors:

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.23 Indicate whether the bylaws or Board regulations establish any term limits for independent directors other than those required by law or any other additional requirements that are stricter than those provided by law:

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.24 Indicate whether the bylaws or board regulations establish specific rules for the appointment of proxies on the board in favour of other Board members, the procedure for doing so and, in particular, the maximum number of proxies a Director may hold, as well as whether any restriction has been established as regards the categories of Director that may be appointed as proxies, beyond the limits imposed by law. If so, provide a brief description.

Article 20 of the Board Regulations establishes that Directors must ensure that their non-attendance is limited to unavoidable cases. Where they cannot attend in person, Directors must grant a proxy with instructions to another Director. Independent Directors may only grant their proxy to another independent Director and non-executive Directors may only grant their proxy to another non-executive Director.

Proxies may be conferred by any postal or electronic means or by fax, provided that the identity of the Director and the direction of the voting instructions can be guaranteed, where applicable.

C.1.25 Indicate the number of meetings held by the Board of Directors during the year. Also indicate, where applicable, how often the Board met without the chairperson's attendance. Proxies appointed with specific instructions should be taken into account when indicating attendance figures.

Number of Board meetings	15
Number of Board meetings held without the chairperson's attendance	0

Indicate the number of meetings held by the lead independent Director with the other Directors, where there was neither attendance nor representation of any executive Director.

Number of meetings	0
---------------------------	---

Indicate the number of meetings of the various board committees held during the year:

Number of meetings held by the audit and compliance committee	12
Number of meetings held by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee	10

For clarification purposes, Board of Directors held 12 meetings during the year and, on 3 other occasions, resolutions were adopted in writing and without a meeting.

It is also noted that the Audit and Compliance Committee held 11 meetings in the year and, on 1 other occasion, resolutions were adopted in writing and without a meeting.

Lastly it is noted that the Nomination and Remuneration Committee held 8 meetings in the year and, on 2 other occasions, resolutions were adopted in writing and without a meeting.

C.1.26 Indicate the number of meetings held by the Board of Directors during the year with member attendance data:

Number of meetings attended by at least 80% of the Directors in person	12
% of attendance in person of the total votes cast during the year	100.00%
Number of meetings held with attendance in person or proxies given with specific instructions, by all directors	12
% of votes cast in person or through proxies with specific instructions out of the total of votes during the year	100.00%

For clarification purposes, the Board of Directors held 12 meetings during the year and, on 3 other occasions, resolutions were adopted in writing and without a meeting.

C.1.27 Indicate whether the individual and consolidated financial statements submitted to the Board for their approval are certified in advance:

Yes ☒

No ☐

Identify, where applicable, the person(s) who certified the company's separate and consolidated financial statements for their approval by the Board:

Name	Position
MR. GUILLAUME MARIE DIDIER GRAS	CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER
MR. MARTÍN TOLCACHIR	GLOBAL CEO (Approval in the certification)

C.1.28 Explain the mechanisms, if any, established by the Board of Directors to ensure that the financial statements that the Board presents to the shareholders' meeting are prepared in accordance with accounting legislation.

With the aim of preventing separate and consolidated financial statements prepared by the Board of Directors from being submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting with auditor's qualifications, before they are prepared, Article 23 of the Board Regulations and Articles 6 et seq. of the Audit and Compliance Committee's Regulations establish that the Audit and Compliance Committee must, among other points:

(a) Oversee the preparation and reporting process, and the clarity and integrity of financial and non-financial information concerning the Company and its Group, reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements, appropriate definition of the consolidated group, and proper application of accounting standards, and to present recommendations and proposals to safeguard the integrity of financial information to the Board of Directors.

This supervisory task by the Committee must be carried out continually as well as promptly, at the request of the Board of Directors.

(b) Regarding the periodic and/or mandatory financial and non-financial information that the Company must submit to the markets and the supervisory bodies, assess compliance with the legal requirements and the correct application of the generally accepted accounting principles, as well as inform the Board of Directors of any significant changes in the accounting principles and, in particular, significant adjustments identified by the auditor or resulting from the reviews made by the internal audit.

(c) Analyse the reasons why the Company breaks down certain alternative performance measures in its public information, instead of the measures defined directly by the applicable regulations, how much useful information is provided to investors and the degree of compliance with that established in the international best practices and recommendations in this area.

(d) Propose the selection, appointment, re-election and removal of the internal audit officers; propose the budget for those services, approve the guidance and work plans, ensuring that its activity focuses mainly on the Company's material risks.

(e) Establish an internal control system for the financial information through which potentially important irregularities, especially financial and accounting ones at the Company, can be notified in a confidential and anonymous way.

(f) Oversee the risk control and management policy regarding the risks which affect the attainment of corporate targets, including, in general, supervision of the agenda of the Committee meetings so that all the material risks can be analysed throughout the year.

(g) Periodically review the efficacy of the risk control and management policy overall, covering both the financial and non-financial risks, including the tax ones, receiving the pertinent reports from the officers, from internal audit and from any person hired for such purpose, with the aim of appropriately identifying, analysing and notifying the main risks, and analyse, together with the auditors, any significant weaknesses in the internal control system detected during the audit, all without affecting its independence.

(h) Ensure that the members of the management team take into account the conclusions and recommendations of the reports of the Audit and Compliance Committee, as well as discuss with the Company's auditors any significant weaknesses in the internal control systems that they may have detected during the audit, all without undermining its independence. For such purposes and, where applicable, it can submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors and the corresponding deadline for dealing with them.

(i) Approve the work plan for the internal audit every year, ensuring that both the management and the staff have the necessary human, financial and technological resources to carry it out and that its activity focuses mainly on the Company's material financial and non-financial risks.

(j) Assess the operations of the internal audit and the performance of its officer, including an assessment of the degree of compliance with the established targets and criteria, as well as with the opinion of the Company's executive management, with the aim of determining the officer's annual variable remuneration, which must also involve the Committee; periodically receive information about the activities performed by the Internal Audit Department and, specifically, regarding the implementation of the annual work plan, the incidents found and the recommendations for such purpose.

(k) Establish appropriate relationships with the external auditors to receive information on those questions that may jeopardise their independence, for examination by the Committee, and any other relationships relating to the process of development of the financial statements auditing process, as well as other notifications included in the legislation governing auditing and audit regulations.

(l) Ensure that the auditor's remuneration for the work does not compromise its quality or independence and analyse the significant changes that may take place in its total remuneration.

(m) Oversee the performance of the audit engagement, endeavouring to ensure that the opinion on the financial statements and the key content of the audit report are drafted clearly and accurately, and assess the results of each audit.

Where an auditor may step down, to examine the circumstances leading to their decision and to ensure that the Company duly reports the change of auditor to the CNMV in a relevant event/inside information notice accompanied by a statement regarding the possible existence of disagreements with the outgoing auditor and, where applicable, the content of the audit report.

(n) Serve as a communication channel between the Board of Directors and the auditors, evaluate the results of each audit and the responses of the management team to their recommendations, and mediate in cases of discrepancies between the auditors and the management team with respect to the principles and criteria applicable in preparing the financial statements.

(ñ) Ensure that the external auditor holds a meeting each year with the plenary session of the Board of Directors in order to inform it about its work and progress in the Company's accounting position and risks.

C.1.29 Is the Board secretary a Director?

Yes ☐

No ☒

If the Secretary is not a Director, complete the following table:

Name or corporate name of the Secretary	Representative
MR. DANIEL ALAMINOS ECHARRI

As of the date of this report, the non-director secretary of the Board of Directors is Mr. Patricio Morenés Hoyos, appointed on January 24, 2025.

C.1.30 Indicate the specific mechanisms, if any, established by the company to preserve the independence of external auditors, as well as, if any, the mechanisms to preserve the independence of financial analysts, investment banks and agencies qualification, including how the legal provisions have been implemented in practice.

DIA has various mechanisms in place to preserve the independence of the auditor. Among them is that one of the main roles of the Audit and Compliance Committee consists in supervising the independence of the auditor, with duties that include the following:

(a) Submit to the Board of Directors the proposed selection, appointment, re-election and replacement of external auditors, taking responsibility for the selection process, as well as their conditions of hiring, and to regularly gather information on the auditing plan and its execution, as well as preserving their independence in the exercise of their tasks.

(b) Establish appropriate relationships with the auditors to receive information on those questions that may jeopardise their independence, for examination by the Committee, and any others relating to the process of development of the accounts auditing process and, where applicable the authorisation of the various services legally forbidden by the applicable regulations as well as other notifications included in the legislation governing auditing and audit standards.

In particular, it must ensure that the external auditor respects the regulations in place on provision of non-audit services, the limits to the auditor's business concentration, and in general other regulations on the independence of auditors. For such purpose, the Committee can review and approve additional policies and guidelines which set out the principles regarding the approval and/or prohibition of providing certain non-audit services and, in general, in relation to the legal regulations on auditing.

In this respect, the Committee is responsible for previously approving the provision of non-audit services, assessing: (i) their nature, the circumstances and context in which they take place, and their effects and if those services jeopardise the auditor's independence; (ii) if the audit firm, based on its knowledge and experience, is the best one to provide such services; (iii) the remuneration for the non-audit services, individually or as a whole, in relation to that for the audit and the parameters used by the audit firm to determine its own remuneration policy; and (iv) where applicable, the establishment of a guiding limit for the fees to be received by the auditor for non-audit services in accordance with the law and the EU regulations.

(c) Receive from the external auditors annually a confirmation of their independence in regard to the entity or entities linked to it directly or indirectly, as well as detailed and individual information of the additional services of any kind provided and the corresponding fees received from these entities by the aforementioned external auditors, or by the persons or entities linked to them, in accordance with the provisions of the audit legislation.

For such purposes, the Committee can request, in the annual independence letter sent by the auditor, the inclusion of a statement informing that it complies with this. Likewise, it can request the auditor, when deemed necessary, to provide an explanation about the internal quality control system that it must have established regarding independence, as well as information about the internal rotation practices of the audit partner and its staff and how it conforms to the audit standards.

Sources of internal information must also be established at the Company, which provide relevant information about the auditor's independence, which come from the financial department, other management functions, internal audit or other assurance functions such as the regulatory compliance, risk or external unit as well as the information that can be provided by the auditor itself.

In view of the content of that independence letter, the Committee must issue annually, prior to the issue of the audit report, a report giving an opinion on whether the independence of the auditors or audit firms has been compromised. This report must in all cases include an assessment of the additional services provided by the auditors, considered separately and in their totality, that consists of services other than the statutory audits and how they relate to the requirement of independence or to the audit standards.

(d) Ensure that the auditor's remuneration for the work does not compromise its quality or independence and analyse the significant changes that may take place in its total remuneration.

(e) In the event of a waiver from the external auditor, it will examine the circumstances leading to this decision and will ensure that the Company announces the new auditor to the CNMV, in addition to a statement on the potential existence of disagreements with the outgoing auditor and the content thereof, if any.

In addition, Article 23 of the Board Regulations and Article 6 of the Audit and Compliance Committee Regulations govern the Audit and Compliance Committee's relationship with the external auditor, establishing that said Committee (i) ensures that the external auditor holds an annual meeting with the full Board of Directors to report to it on the work performed and on the evolution of the Company's accounting and risk situation; and (ii) ensures that the Company and the external auditor comply with current regulations on the provision of non-audit services, the limits on the concentration of the auditor's business and, in general, other regulations on auditor independence.

The DIA Investor Relations Department coordinates relationships with financial analysts, investment banks and rating agencies, as appropriate, handling both their requests for information and those of the institutional or private investors, based on the principles of transparency, non-discrimination, veracity and reliability of the information provided. To do this, it has the Corporate Policy on Investor Relations, which is available on the company website.

To put these principles into practice, and always within the strictest compliance with the regulations relating to Securities Markets, DIA has available various channels of communication such as (a) publication of information relating to the presentation of the periodic results or to corporate operations; (b) presentations to investors; and (c) submission of statements and press releases.

C.1.31 Indicate whether the Company has changed its external auditor during the year. If so, identify the incoming and outgoing auditor:

Yes ☐

No ☒

In the event of any disagreements with the outgoing auditor, explain the substance thereof:

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.32 Indicate whether the audit firm performs non-audit work for the company and/or its group and, if so, state the amount of fees paid for such work and the percentage they represent of the fees invoiced for audit work to the company and/or its group:

Yes ☒

No ☐

	Company	Group companies	Total
Amount of non-audit work (in thousands of euros)	338	67	405
Amount invoiced for non-audit services/Amount for audit work (in %)	134.13	11.82	49.45

The fees of the auditor for services other than those related to the audit reported in this section do not match the audit fees in notes 22 and 24 of the individual and consolidated annual accounts, respectively, as the information reported here does not include the fees related to the verification of the Consolidated Non-Financial Information Statement and Sustainability Information (€115 thousand), which are included in the aforementioned notes.

C.1.33 Indicate whether the auditors' report on the financial statements for the preceding year contains qualified opinions. If so, indicate the reasons given to the shareholders at the shareholders' meeting by the chairperson of the audit committee to explain the content and scope of such qualified opinions.

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.34 Indicate the number of consecutive years for which the current audit firm has been auditing the company's individual and/or consolidated financial statements. Likewise, indicate the number of years the current audit firm has been auditing the financial statements as a percentage of the total number of years in which the financial statements have been audited:

	Separate	Consolidated
Number of consecutive years	6	6

	Separate	Consolidated
No. of years audited by the current audit firm/No. of years in which the company or its group have been audited (in %)	18.18	18.18

C.1.35 Indicate and give details of any procedure to ensure directors receive the necessary information to prepare for meetings of the managing bodies sufficiently in advance:

Yes ☒

No ☐

Details of the procedure
Under Article 34 of the Board Regulations, Directors have the duty to diligently inform themselves of the Company's business. For such purpose, any director may request information on any aspect of the Company and its subsidiaries and examine the books, registers, documents and other documentation thereof. Furthermore, this Article provides that all duties of information will be previously channelled through the Board's chairperson, who will forward the request to the relevant liaison officer within the Company. In addition, Article 18 of the Board Regulations requires that all meetings be called at least five days in advance, except for emergency situations. Likewise, Article 14 of the Board Regulations establishes that the chairperson, as the person responsible for the Board's operation, will ensure that all Directors previously receive sufficient information, stimulating discussions and the active participation of Directors during Board meetings.

C.1.36 Indicate and give details of whether the company has established rules obliging Directors to inform the Board or, as the case may be, resign when situations arise which affect them, whether or not related to their actions within the company itself, which could harm the company's name or reputation:

Yes ☒

No ☐

Explain the rules
Article 13 of the Board Regulations establishes that Directors must immediately tender their resignation when situations affecting them, whether or not related to their performance at the Company, could damage the good name or reputation of the Company or they lose the commercial and professional good repute required to be a Director of the Company.

C.1.37 Indicate, unless special circumstances have occurred which have been recorded in the Minutes, whether the Board has been informed or has otherwise become aware of a situation affecting a Director, whether or not related to the Director's actions in the company itself, that may harm the company's name or reputation:

Yes ☐

No ☒

C.1.38 Give details of any significant agreements entered into by the company that will enter into force, be amended or terminated in the event of a change of control of the company due to a takeover bid, and their effects.

The Company has entered into finance agreements that include modifications to or terminations of this finance if there is a change of control at the Company, although it is not specified that this is so in case of a tender offer. Apart from the above, it is worth mentioning that the Company has entered into certain lease agreements for shop premises (not considered individually significant agreements) that include clauses with modifications or the cancellation or termination of these agreements in case of company operations that represent changes of control at the Company or its shareholders, although they do not refer expressly to changes of control derived from tender offers.

C.1.39 Identify, in individual form where Directors are concerned and in aggregate form in all other cases and provide detailed information on agreements between the company and its officers, executives and employees that provide indemnities, guarantee or “golden parachute” clauses for the event of resignation, unjustified dismissal or termination as a result of a takeover bid or other type of transaction.

Number of beneficiaries	42
Type of beneficiary	Description of the agreement
Other management positions	For senior management there is no homogeneous form, notice periods are contemplated, depending on the case, in cases of dismissal ranging from 1 to 6 months. As for compensation in cases of dismissal declared without cause by the competent courts, there is no homogeneous formula either, there are different variants, depending on the case, such as 6 or 12 monthly payments or a fixed lump sum previously agreed between the parties.

Indicate whether, beyond the cases established by legislation, these agreements have to be communicated and/or authorised by the governing bodies of the company or its group. If yes, specify the procedures, cases envisaged and nature of the bodies responsible for the approval or making the notification:

C.2 Committees of the Board of Directors

C.2.1 Provide details of all committees of the Board of Directors, their members, and the proportion of executive, nominee, independent and other non-executive directors forming them:

Audit and Compliance Committee
Name	Position	Category
MS. GLORIA HERNÁNDEZ GARCIA	CHAIRPERSON	Independent
MR. JOSÉ WAHNON LEVY	MEMBER	Independent
MR. SERGIO ANTONIO FERREIRA DIAS	MEMBER	Other non-executive director

% of executive directors	0.00
% of proprietary directors	0.00
% of independent directors	66.67
% of other non-executive directors	33.33

Explain the functions, including, where applicable, the additional ones to those legally envisaged, attributed to this committee and describe its procedures and organisational and operating rules. For each function, state its main actions during the year and how each one attributed to it by law or the bylaws or other corporate resolutions was carried out.

In accordance with Article 39 of the Bylaws, Article 23 of the Board Regulations, and Article 12 of the Committee's Regulations, the Audit and Compliance Committee will consist of at least three and a maximum of five directors, designated by the Board itself from among its non-executive directors, where the majority of the members and, in any case, the Committee's chairperson must be independent.

Likewise, the members of the Audit and Compliance Committee, particularly its chairperson, will be designated according to their knowledge and experience in accounting, auditing or risk management matters. Their knowledge and experience in financial matters, internal control and business management will be taken into account, as well as their knowledge, ability and experience in consideration with the Committee's other tasks.

In particular, to consider that a Director has knowledge and experience in accounting, auditing or both, the Committee member must have: (a) knowledge in accounting or audit standards or both; (b) the ability to assess and interpret the accounting standards; (c) experience in drafting, auditing, analysing or assessing financial statements with a certain complex nature, similar to those of the Company itself, or experience in supervising one or more persons involved in such tasks; and (d) understanding of the internal control mechanisms related to the process of drafting financial statements.

For these purposes, the following will be taken into account: the knowledge and professional experience gained as a result of the performance of functions directly related to these matters, as well as the knowledge and experience due to the performance of management and executive functions and responsibilities which could be related to these issues in a significant way (such as chief executive officers or senior managers with supervisory and management responsibilities in accounting, financial or risk management areas, etc.). Likewise, the aim is to ensure diversity, especially regarding gender, professional experience, competence, sector knowledge and geographical origin.

In accordance with section 2 of Article 529 [section four] of the Capital Companies Law and DIA's internal regulations, the chairperson of the Audit and Compliance Committee will be appointed from among independent Directors. The chairperson will be replaced every four years and may be re-elected one year after leaving office. They must have sufficient ability and availability to devote more time to the Committee than the other members.

The members of the management team or Company staff will be obliged to attend all meetings of the Audit and Compliance Committee, collaborating and providing access to any information they may have, at the Committee's request. The Committee may also request the presence of the Company's auditors at its meetings. Also, if it deems it necessary for the adequate performance of its functions, the Audit and Compliance Committee may be advised by external experts, duly informing the secretary or deputy secretary of the Board, who will be in charge of engaging the necessary services, making sure that any potential conflicts of interest do not compromise the independence of the external advice provided.

The composition of the Committee complies with the provisions of the aforementioned regulations, insofar as two of the three members of the Committee are independent Directors, which guarantees the impartiality and objectivity of the criteria of the Audit Committee.

Lastly, the Committee complies with Article 529 [section four] of the Capital Companies Law since, overall, the members of the Audit and Compliance Committee of DIA have the pertinent technical knowledge in order to carry out the Committee's functions.

The Audit and Compliance Committee, by virtue of its functions provided for in Article 529 [section four] of the Capital Companies Act, Article 23 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors of the Company and Articles 5 et seq. of the Regulations of the Commission, has focused the objectives of their meetings in 2024 on the following core activities: (i) monitor the effectiveness of the Company's internal control, internal audit and risk management systems, as well as discuss with the account auditor the significant weaknesses of the internal control system detected in the development of the audit, all without breaking their independence, for which, if applicable, may submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors and the corresponding deadline for its follow-up; (ii) oversee and evaluate the preparation process and the integrity of financial and non-financial information, as well as financial and non-financial risk management and control systems, including prosecutors, relating to the Company and its group – including operations, technology, legal, social, environment, political, reputational or corruption-related policies – reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements, the proper delimitation of the consolidation perimeter and the correct application of the accounting criteria and, if applicable, submit recommendations or proposals to the Board of Directors aimed at safeguarding the integrity of financial and non-financial information; (iii) report, prior to its authorisation by the Board of Directors or the General Shareholders' Meeting, as appropriate, transactions or transactions that may represent conflicts of interest with shareholders holding a significant interest or represented in the Board of Directors and its related persons; (iv) to raise the selection proposals to the Board of Directors, appointment, re-election and replacement of external account auditors, as well as their contracting terms and regularly collect from them information about the audit plan and its execution, in addition to preserving their independence in the exercise of their duties; (v) establish the appropriate relationships with the external auditor to receive information on those issues that may pose a threat to their independence, for examination by the Commission, and any others related to the account audit development process, and, where applicable, the authorisation of services other than those prohibited, under the terms of the law, as well as those other communications provided for in account audit legislation and audit standards, for which it must receive annually from the external auditors the declaration of its independence in relation to the Company or entities linked to it directly or indirectly, as well as detailed and individualised information on the additional services of any kind provided and the corresponding fees received from these entities by the external auditor or by the persons or entities linked to it in accordance with the provisions of the regulations regulating account audit activity; (vi) issue annually, prior to the issuance of the account audit report, a report expressing an opinion as to whether the independence of auditors of accounts or audit companies is compromised, report to contain, in any case, the reasoned assessment of the provision of each and every one of the additional services referred to in the previous letter, individually considered and as a whole, other than the legal audit and in relation to the independence regime or the regulatory regulations of the account audit activity; (vii) monitor compliance with corporate governance rules and internal company codes of conduct, also ensuring that the corporate culture is aligned with its purpose and values; (viii) ensure the independence of the unit that assumes the internal audit function; propose selection, appointment, Re-election and termination of the Internal Audit Service Owner; propose the budget for that service; approve the orientation and their work plans, ensuring that its activity is primarily focused on the relevant risks of society; receive periodic information about its activities; and verify that senior management takes into account the conclusions and recommendations of their reports; (ix) be informed about the operations of structural and corporate modifications that the Company plans to carry out for its analysis and prior report to the Board of Directors on its economic conditions and its accounting impact and, especially, if applicable, about the proposed redemption equation; (x) approval of financial information that, because of their listed status, the Company shall make public from time to time.

The Company's Audit and Compliance Committee met 11 times in 2024 and, on 1 other occasion, the resolutions were adopted in writing and without a meeting. All the members attended all the meetings in person or by proxy.

This Committee met with the necessary frequency for the proper performance of its functions, in all cases complying with Article 23.10 of the Board Regulations and Article 20.1 of the Committee's Regulations, which establish that it must meet, at least, every quarter, with the aim of reviewing the periodic financial information which, in accordance with Articles 118 and 119 of the Securities Market Law, the Board has to submit to the market supervisory authorities as well as the information that the Board has to approve and include in its own annual or interim public documentation.

Identify the Directors who are members of the audit committee and have been appointed keeping in mind their knowledge and experience in accounting or audit matters, or both, and state the date that the chairperson of this committee was appointed.

% of independent directors	66.67
% of other non-executive directors	33.33

Explain the functions delegated or attributed to this committee other than those already described in section C.1.9 and describe its procedures and organisational and operating rules. For each function, state its main actions during the year and how each one attributed to it by law or the bylaws or other corporate resolutions was carried out.

In accordance with Articles 39 of the Bylaws and 24 of the Board Regulations, the Board of Directors shall set up a permanent Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which shall be composed of a minimum of three and a maximum of five directors, appointed by the Board of Directors itself from among its external directors, at least two of which must be independent directors.

The members of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall be appointed with the knowledge, skills and experience appropriate to the functions they are called upon to perform. To this end, both their professional knowledge and experience, gathered when performing tasks directly related to these matters, will be taken into account, as will any knowledge and experience resulting from management and executive tasks, and responsibilities that have a relevant impact on these matters, among others (e.g. CEOs, top executives or senior managers supervising and controlling human resources, corporate governance, remuneration policies, etc.).

The Chairperson of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors from among the independent directors forming part of the Committee.

The members of the Board of Directors, management team or Company staff will be obliged to attend all meetings of this Committee, collaborating and providing access to any information they may have, at the Committee's request. Furthermore, if it deems this necessary for the adequate performance of its tasks, it may be advised by external experts.

In light of the above, and as the Committee consists of three directors – none of whom are executive directors – the composition of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee conforms to the Bylaws and Board Regulations. In addition, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee complies with Article 529 [section fifteen] of the Capital Companies Law as well as with the good corporate governance recommendations of the Good Governance Code, particularly number 47, recommending the majority of its directors be independent, in order to guarantee impartiality and objectivity of judgment.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee, in compliance with its functions provided for in Article 24 of the Regulations of the Board of Directors, has carried out during the fiscal year 2024 the functions assigned to it, which, among others, have been the following: (i) to evaluate the necessary competencies, knowledge and experience on the Board of Directors. For these purposes, the committee has defined the functions and skills required for the candidates to cover a vacancy, and has evaluated the precise time and dedication in order to carry out their tasks effectively; (ii) making proposals to the Board of Directors of independent directors to be appointed by co-option or for submission to decision by the shareholders' meeting, and proposals for re-election and removal of those Directors by the shareholders' meeting; (iii) reporting to the Board on proposals for the appointment, re-election and removal of internal positions within the Board of Directors of the Company (chairperson and deputy chairperson, lead independent director, secretary and deputy secretary, if any); (iv) reporting on proposals for the appointment and removal of senior managers and the basic conditions of their contracts; (v) proposing to the Board of Directors (a) the policy on remuneration for Directors and senior managers or any other persons performing senior management duties reporting to the board, the committees or the chief executives, (b) the individual remuneration of executive directors and the other terms of their contracts, supervising their implementation, and (c) the basic terms of contracts of senior managers; (vi) assisting the board in the preparation of the report on directors' remuneration policy and sending the board any other reports on remuneration contemplated in these regulations, verifying the information on remuneration paid to Directors and senior management contained in the different corporate documents, including the annual report on directors' remuneration; (vii) examining and organising the succession plan for the chairperson of the Board and for the chief executive officer of the Company and, if applicable, suggesting proposals to the Board of Directors to ensure a smooth and organised transition; and (viii) reporting on proposals for the appointment of other directors to be appointed by co-option or for submission to decision by the shareholders' meeting, and proposals for re-election and removal of those directors by the shareholders' meeting.

The Company's Nomination and Remuneration Committee held 8 formal meetings in 2024 and, on 2 other occasions, the resolutions were adopted in writing and without a meeting. All the members attended all the meetings in person or by proxy.

C.2.2 Complete the following table with information regarding the number of female Directors who were members of Board committees at the close of the past four years:

Number of female directors
Year 2024		Year 2023		Year 2022		Year 2021
Number	(%)	Number	(%)	Number	(%)	Number	(%)

Audit and Compliance Committee	1	33.33	1	33.33	1	33.33	0	0.00
Nomination and Remuneration Committee	1	33.33	1	33.33	1	33.33	2	66.66

C.2.3 Indicate whether there are any regulations governing the Board committees, where they can be consulted, and whether any amendments have been made during the year. In turn, indicate whether an annual report on the activities of each committee has been prepared voluntarily.

The organisational and operating rules of the Audit and Compliance Committee and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee are included in the Board Regulations and in the Audit and Compliance Committee Regulations, which are available for consultation on DIA's website (www.diacorporate.com).

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Audit and Compliance Committee prepare the corresponding annual reports on their activities, with the aim of assessing their operation and organisation in 2024, highlighting any significant events that have taken place related to their duties. These reports are made available to the shareholders on the Company's corporate website.

D RELATED PARTY AND INTRAGROUP TRANSACTIONS

D.1 Explain, where appropriate, the procedure and competent bodies relating to the approval of transactions with related and intragroup parties, indicating the criteria and general internal rules of the entity that regulate the abstention obligations of the affected Director or shareholders. Provide details of the internal information and periodic control procedures established by the company in relation to those related-party transactions whose approval has been delegated by the Board of Directors.

Pursuant to Article 6.2 of the Board Regulations and Article 5.1.(v) of the Audit and Compliance Committee Regulations, this Committee has the authority to supervise compliance with the legislation on related-party transactions with directors or significant shareholders or shareholders represented on the Board. Specifically, the Audit and Compliance Committee will report to the Board on such related-party transactions and, in general, on transactions that entail or may entail conflicts of interest, so that they can be approved, and will ensure that the related information is reported to the market as required by law.

In order to do so, pursuant to Article 10.1.(b) of the Audit and Compliance Committee Regulations, this Committee must gather and analyse all necessary information and documentation and will be able to request expert reports where it is deemed advisable to have experts give an opinion on aspects such as the effects of a proposed transaction on the corporate interest or whether the transaction is being carried out on market terms.

Regarding its approval, Article 6.1 of the Board Regulations establishes that the Board of Directors formally reserves the right to approve, subject to a report from the Audit and Compliance Committee, related-party transactions within the meaning of Article 529 [vicies] of the Capital Companies Law, unless their approval falls to the Shareholders' Meeting in accordance with the provisions of the law.

Obligations to abstain are set out in Article 28.3.b) of the Board Regulations, which stipulates that Directors must leave the meeting during the deliberation and voting on those matters in which they are involved in a conflict of interest and shall be deducted from the number of members attending for the purposes of calculating quorum for attendance and voting.

D.2 Provide individual details of operations that are significant due to their amount or due to their subject matter carried out between the company or its subsidiaries and shareholders holding 10% or more of the voting rights or who are represented on the Board of Directors of the company, indicating which has been the competent body for its approval and if any affected shareholder or director has abstained. In the event that the Board of Directors has responsibility, indicate if the proposed resolution has been approved by the Board without a vote against the majority of the independent directors:

	Name or company name of the shareholder or any of its subsidiaries	% Shareholding	Name or corporate name of company or subsidiary	Nature of the relationship	Type of transaction and info required for its approval	Amount (thousands of euros)	Approving body	Identity of the significant shareholder or Director who has abstained	The proposal to the AGM, if applicable, has been approved by the Board without a vote against the majority of independent directors
(1)	L1 RETAIL UK LLP	77.70%	DISTRIBUIDORA INTERNACIONAL DE ALIMENTACIÓN, S.A.	Contractual	Advisory and consultancy services	42	Board of Directors	Benjamin J.Babcock	NO

D.3 Provide individual details of the significant transactions due to their amount or due to their subject matter carried out by the company or its subsidiaries with the administrators or managers of the company, including those transactions carried out with entities that the administrator or manager controls or controls jointly, indicating the competent body for its approval and if any affected shareholder or Director has abstained. In the event that the Board of Directors has responsibility, indicate if the proposed resolution has been approved by the Board without a vote against the majority of the independent directors:

	Name or company name of the administrators or managers or their controlled or jointly controlled entities	Name or company name of the company or entity within its group	Relationship	Type of transaction and info required for its approval	Amount (thousands of euros)	Approving body	Identity of the shareholder or Director who has abstained	The proposal to the Board, if applicable, has been approved by the Board without a vote against the majority of independent directors
	Serio Antonio Ferreira Dias		Director	Advisory services	58	Board of Directors	Sergio Antonio Ferreira Dias	No

In 2024, Mr. Dias provided advisory services to the Company related to the Group's investment in Dia Brazil. The agreement had an initial term of 3 months and reached a total amount of 57.6 thousand euros. This contract was approved by the Board of Directors, following the favorable reports of the Audit and Compliance Committee and the Appointments and Compensation Committee.

D.4 Report individually on significant intra-group transactions due to their amount or due to their subject matter that have been undertaken by the company with its parent company or with other entities belonging to the parent's group, including subsidiaries of the listed company, except where no other related party of the listed company has interests in these subsidiaries or that they are fully owned, directly or indirectly, by the listed company.

In all cases, list any intragroup transaction performed with entities established in countries or territories considered to be tax havens:

Corporate name of the group entity	Brief description of the transaction and other information necessary for its evaluation	Amount (thousands of euros)
No data

D.5 Provide individual details of the significant transactions due to their amount or due to their subject matter carried out by the company or its subsidiaries with other related parties pursuant to the international accounting standards adopted by the EU, which have not been reported in previous sections.

Corporate name of the related party	Brief description of the transaction and other information necessary for its evaluation	Amount (thousands of euros)
No data

D.6 Provide details of the mechanisms in place to detect, determine and resolve potential conflicts of interest between the company and/or its group and its Directors, senior management, significant shareholders or other associated parties.

Pursuant to Article 28 of the Company's Board Regulations, Directors must adopt the necessary measures to avoid becoming subject to conflicts of interest and, notwithstanding the statutory provisions on the duty to avoid situations of a conflict of interest, situations of a conflict of interest will be governed by the following rules:

- a) Notification: Directors must notify the Board of Directors, through its Chairperson or the Secretary or Deputy Secretary, of any conflict-of-interest situation in which they find themselves.
- b) Abstention: Directors must leave the meeting during the deliberation and voting on those matters in which they are involved in a conflict of interest and shall be deducted from the number of members attending for the purposes of calculating the quorum for attendance and voting.
- c) Transparency: The Company shall report, where required by law, any conflict-of-interest situation in which the Directors have found themselves during the financial year in question and of which it is aware by virtue of notification from the affected party or by any other means.

The above obligation to abstain shall not apply (except where otherwise provided in the law, the bylaws or the Board Regulations) to resolutions or decisions affecting their status as Directors, such as their appointment or removal from office on the managing body or others of similar significance.

In addition, as stated in Article 11.1 of the Audit and Compliance Committee Regulations, this Committee will have the function of reporting on any operations or transactions that may cause conflicts of interest before their authorisation by the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting, as applicable, which includes transactions with Company and Group Directors and related persons, as well as transactions with significant shareholders or shareholders represented on the Board of Directors and related persons.

At its meeting held on 27 October 2021, the Board of Directors approved the DÍA Group's Policy on the Management of Conflicts of Interest and Related-Party Transactions. In 2022, said policy was updated in relation to the scope of its application by agreement of the Board of Directors of 29 June 2022.

In accordance with this policy, a conflict of interest is a situation in which interests of the Company or its group companies directly or indirectly conflict with the personal interests of any person with management responsibilities, on their own behalf or on behalf of others, or of their related persons. It establishes that any person with management responsibilities must act with the loyalty of a faithful representative, acting in good faith and in the best interest of the Company, regardless of other own interests or those of third parties. Consequently, any person with management responsibilities will refrain from preferring their own interests, on their own behalf or on behalf of others, or their related persons, at the expense of DIA, and will seek to avoid any conflict situation in the exercise of their functions, including, in particular, those contained in Article 229.1 of the Capital Companies Law. In addition, any person discharging managerial responsibilities must refrain from attending and intervening in deliberations and voting in relation to conflict situations affecting them or a related person and must also refrain from accessing confidential information related to the matter and warn those who are to make the decision of the potential conflict situation.

All DIA Directors must notify the Board of Directors of DIA, through its secretary, the list of their related persons (which must be kept permanently updated) as well as any personal, family, professional or business situation or circumstance that may imply a conflict situation at any time. In the notice, Directors must indicate whether the potential conflict of interest affects them personally or through a related person, in which case they must identify such person. Directors must also specify the situation that gave rise to the conflict of interest, detailing, where appropriate, the purpose and the main conditions of the projected transaction or decision and its approximate amount. When the conflict of interest situation involves a permanent and structural conflict that prevents the Director from continuing to perform their duties faithfully, the Director must immediately tender their resignation to the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall be the body responsible for analysing and, where appropriate, providing exemption, when permitted by law and under the terms established therein, following a report from the Audit and Compliance Committee, the conflict situations of DIA Directors or their related persons, except when such authorisation corresponds to the Shareholders' Meeting of the Company by operation of law.

The policy on the management of conflicts of interest and related-party transactions also regulates the procedure applicable to the transactions that DIA or any of its group companies perform with significant shareholders or board members.

D.7 Indicate whether the company is controlled by another entity in the meaning of Article 42 of the Commercial Code, whether listed or not, and whether it has, directly or through any of its subsidiaries, business relationships with said entity or any of its subsidiaries (other than the listed company) or carries out activities related to those of any of them.

E RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS

E.1 Explain the scope of the company's financial and non-financial risk management and control system, including those of a tax nature.

The Dia Group Risk Management Model (hereinafter, "RMM") is structured as an iterative process of continuous improvement. This process consists of identification, assessment of the impact and probability of occurrence, prioritisation according to the speed of materialisation, monitoring and management over time, within the approved appetite and tolerance, of the various risks aligned with the Group's objectives and highlighting the importance of risk management in strategic planning and its integration at all levels of the organisation.

The RMM of the Group is inspired by the methodological framework set out in COSO ERM 2017 (Committee of Sponsoring Organizations, of the Treadway Commission - Enterprise Risk Management 2017) and it is adapted to Dia Group's own needs and specificities. The RMM is structured as follows:

1. Identification: Strategy, objective setting and risk management operate together. A strategy and its objectives are defined, and then the risks that may affect the achievement of these objectives are identified and assessed.
2. Evaluation: The objective is to obtain the parameters that allow the assessment of the impact and probability of occurrence of all risks in order to prioritise them according to the speed of materialisation and to be in a position to take actions to mitigate, transfer, share and/or avoid the risks.
3. Follow up: The objective is to monitor risks and establish management mechanisms to keep risks within the established risk appetite and tolerance limits and to take appropriate management actions.
4. Management: The objective is the implementation of actions aimed at achieving optimal risk levels and, in any case, respecting the limits set. The aim of this process is to ensure that all risks remain adequately managed and within the appetite and tolerance levels approved by the Board of Directors.
5. Reporting and Communication: Risk management requires a continuous process of obtaining and exchanging the necessary information from both internal and external sources, flowing through all levels of the organisation. Information is communicated both upwards and downwards within the Group, through regular meetings to update and identify emerging or materialised risks.

The Group is subject to various risks inherent in the different countries in which it operates and the activities it carries out, which may prevent it from achieving its objectives and successfully executing its strategies, including the following broad categories of risk: strategic, operational, compliance, financial and reputational.

The guidelines on risk management are set out in the Enterprise Risk Management Policy approved by the Board of Directors.

Regarding the management of tax risks, Dia Group has designed a System for the Control and Management of Tax Risks, the objective of which is to manage the main tax risks identified in each business unit and to supervise the effectiveness of the controls that mitigate them within the comprehensive risk management system. During 2024, part of the controls of the System for the Control and Management of Tax Risks have been integrated in the new Tax ICFR (SCIIF) process.

The tax principles and best practices that make up the tax strategy must guide decision-making at all levels, as well as establishing that the Group does not use opaque corporate structures of any kind or companies located in tax havens for tax purposes.

In addition, Dia Group has adhered to the Code of Good Tax Practices and is committed to complying with the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises in tax matters.

E.2 Identify the bodies within the company responsible for preparing and executing the System of Control and Management of financial and non-financial Risks, including tax risk.

The main bodies and areas involved in the RMM and their responsibilities are as follows:

The Board of Directors has the non-delegable duty to approve the Business Risk Management Policy, as well as the level of risk appetite and risk tolerance.

The Audit and Compliance Committee (hereinafter "CAC") is responsible for overseeing risk management, ensuring that it is conducted within the accepted risk appetite and tolerance limits, as well as compliance with the aforementioned Policy. The CAC shall, at least annually, report to the Board of Directors on the adequacy of risk management, the existence of processes in place for the identification of both inherent and residual risks, including emerging risks, and the monitoring thereof.

The Group Management Committee is ultimately responsible for the implementation of the RMM and for disseminating and promoting the risk and control culture in the Group as a factor to be taken into account in all decisions and at all levels. It approves in advance the Group's risk map and its subsequent updates for subsequent presentation to the CAC and the latter to the Board of Directors, and also has the power to review the risk maps of each of the business units in order to ensure that residual risks are managed within the risk appetite approved by the Board of Directors.

The Risk and Internal Control Committee is responsible for taking the decisions derived from the operation of the RMM, assuming the following responsibilities:

- Approves the methodological framework that enables adequate risk management, ensures the proper functioning of the IRMS and, in particular, that it enables the most significant risks that may affect the Group to be identified, assessed, managed, communicated and monitored.
- It ensures that emerging risks are properly identified, assessed, managed and reported.
- Approves the risk maps of the business units and the Group risk map for submission to the Group Management Board.
- Annually reviews the appetite and tolerance, proposing changes when it deems appropriate.
- It monitors the action plans in order to ensure that the risks associated with them are duly managed.

The Internal Control and Risk Management Department, reporting to the Group's CFO, is responsible for the design and development of the RMM, the objectives of which are to help identify, assess, manage and monitor the evolution of the identified risks considered most relevant for the Group, reporting on their situation and foreseeable evolution to the responsible areas, the Management Committee and the CAC. It provides the Group with a common risk management methodology and ensures that it is monitored. It also coordinates with all the Dia Group's risk managers.

Risk owners: heads of the functional areas designated to manage the risks, establishing the necessary controls and action plans. Each risk has a single risk owner whose responsibility is to manage the risk within the established risk appetite. In the case of emerging risks, the Risk Management and Internal Control Committee will be responsible for assigning this responsibility to the appropriate person.

The supervision of control of tax risks is carried out by the Group Tax Department.

E.3 Indicate the main financial and non-financial risks, including tax risks, as well as those deriving from corruption (with the scope of these risks as set out in Royal Decree Law 18/2017), to the extent that these are significant and may affect the achievement of business objectives.

Dia Group defines risk as any threat of an internal or external event materialising, preventing or hindering the achievement of the strategy and objectives set by the organisation.

During 2024, the risk map was updated and approved by the Board of Directors. This map identifies the most critical risks affecting the Group's objectives. After analyzing the controls and action plans, the following nine (9) risks from the map remain with the highest criticality (top-risks):

1. Liquidity and/or financing risk: The Organization's difficulty in obtaining the necessary liquidity to assume and meet its financial obligations and debt refinancing, as well as restrictions on cash flows (collections/payments).
2. Inadequate management of cybersecurity incidents: Damage to corporate systems as a result of a security breach or malicious and/or erroneous activities by employees/third parties, which could jeopardize the protection of information and the continuity of systems.

3. Lack of information integrity and/or misuse of information: Errors in decision-making, establishing strategies, objectives, and/or plans derived from the use of unreliable, incorrect, or incomplete data or information sources (disinformation), either due to a lack of integrity of internal/external information or decisions based on unvalidated artificial intelligence tools or unverified corporate information.
4. Information leakage: Due to a security breach or malicious and/or erroneous activities by employees/third parties; sensitive, protected, or confidential data is copied, transmitted, viewed, stolen, or used by an unauthorized person.
5. Reputational damage and/or company image: Risk of impact on Dia's reputation due to any communication channel that leads to changes in the perception of the Group, or the brands that comprise it, by stakeholders.
6. Risk of inadequate cold chain management: Inadequate establishment of the storage temperature of stocks in refrigeration chambers, cold display cases, etc., which may cause damage to the customer's health after ingestion.
7. Business continuity: Lack of a business continuity and crisis management strategy in the Group, including operational interruption and/or failure in technological systems that prevent the execution of activities and/or decision-making.
8. Inadequate ESG management and reporting of the Group's non-financial information: Non-compliance with CSRD regulations regarding the control model and/or lack of reliability in the non-financial statements reported to the market, as well as inadequate management of ESG requirements and integration at the business level, which will imply climate change regulations, food waste, recycling, water, etc.
9. Inadequate access control management to information systems and/or networks: Inadequate management of user and/or asset access (e.g., computers, mobile phones) to the organization's information systems and/or networks: identity management, authentication and authorization, network segmentation, least privilege, access to non-corporate assets and/or accounts, employee termination management, functional segregation, etc

At the end of 2024, the process of reevaluating the Group's risk map began, defining a preliminary catalogue of 30 risks and to which the levels of tolerance and risk appetite approved by the responsible bodies will be applied, so that, after the inherent valuation of the risks or the intrinsic value without taking into account the existing control mechanisms, if this exceeds the risk appetite, the associated controls will be identified for subsequent evaluation, obtaining a residual valuation of the impact and probability of each risk, which will be presented in a residual 2025 risk map.

E.4 Indicate whether the entity has risk tolerance levels, including for tax risk.

Dia Group has established a methodology for the definition of the maximum tolerance level for each risk category identified within the map, on which, based on quantitative financial criteria of materiality and other qualitative criteria, the impact assessment scale is proposed for the assessment of risks. The tolerance (maximum capacity for acceptable risk) has been defined, which has determined the level of appetite (level of risk willing to accept) established for each of the risks in the catalogue.

The Dia Group's Management Committee defines the risk tolerance level, which is submitted to the CAC for annual approval. As the date of this report the tolerance proposal is currently being worked on with 2024 updated data, which will be submitted and approved during 2025 by the Board of Directors.

E.5 Indicate which financial or non-financial risks, including tax risks, have materialised during the year.

During 2024, the following risks materialized, mainly derived from extraordinary or cyclical circumstances:

- The country risk of Argentina, with a situation of political, economic and social instability, has caused a significant drop in consumption and has also had a specific impact on the supply chain in terms of the level of stock supply, as well as negatively on the data of known and unknown loss. Likewise, power outages from electricity distributors occasionally caused damage to some stores due to breakage of the cold chain.

In Spain, two stores in the Levante area were affected by the effects of the DANA with a limited impact on the risk of business continuity.

E.6 Explain the response and supervision plans for the entity's main risks, including tax risks, as well as the procedure followed by the company to ensure that the Board of Directors responds to the new challenges that may arise.

Risk managers, in each of the business units, carry out risk management under their responsibility through the assessments of the risks identified in the catalogue, as well as any emerging risk events that may materialise in the future, so their inclusion in the risk map must be assessed.

Likewise, significant events occurring during the reference period are reported to the Risk Management Committee, as well as the related actions plans defined in order to mitigate the risks and which are regularly monitored to confirm their implementation and follow-up.

It is also important to highlight the implementation of the tax risk management system that reinforces risk management in the Group and provides response and supervision to the control that the Group exercises in them.

Dia Group has set policies and procedures designed to inform and train employees on certain principles of conduct and to prevent and detect inappropriate conduct.

The Risk Management and Internal Control Department evaluates the strength of response plans and periodically monitors their effectiveness. Below, we describe the main action and supervision plans for the top risks:

For Liquidity and/or Financing risk (#1), at the end of 2024, the restructuring of corporate debt was successfully completed, and other financing alternatives were expanded. The objective is to ensure the Group's liquidity for the coming years, thereby reducing the likelihood of this risk materializing.

In terms of technology within operational risks, the 2025-2026 master plan for IT risks was presented. This plan encompasses all actions and deadlines for managing cybersecurity incidents (#2), mitigating the lack of information integrity and/or misuse of information (#3), directly managing the risk of information leakage (#4), and improving access control management for information systems and/or networks (#9). This master plan is monitored periodically to track its effective implementation and gradual reduction of the criticality of technological risks in the medium term.

To strengthen control over the risk of inadequate cold chain management (#6), several ongoing actions were agreed upon, such as renovation plans and approved investments in equipment in stores and warehouses, reinforcement of audits, and remote temperature monitoring. Therefore, the improvement in the rating of this risk will be confirmed as the refrigeration equipment is gradually renewed.

Regarding the business continuity risk (#7), the business continuity plan (BCP) was completed in 2024, which will result in an improvement in the risk assessment. Work continues to strengthen disaster recovery plans (DRP) in information systems at the Group level.

Within compliance risks, to mitigate the risk of inadequate ESG management and reporting of the Group's non-financial information (#8), the Sustainability Committee was deployed as a governing body that follows the initiatives of the Strategic Sustainability Plan. For the reporting of sustainability information for the 2024 fiscal year, the adaptation of reporting to the CSRD regulation was completed with the approval of the double materiality analysis by the Board of Directors, and a new sustainability reporting tool was implemented. Additionally, the internal control system for sustainability information (SCIF) was designed and implemented.

Finally, measures or tools are underway to reduce potential reputational damage and/or the Company's image (#5), such as the digital crisis guide (toolkit) and the monitoring of a new reputational indicator.

Additionally, the KRIs (Key Risk Indicators) defined for monitoring the 30 risks in the 2024 catalogue have been established, the data for which are updated semi-annually. Action plans are also established by the risk owners for those risks with KRIs that show deviation from the defined alert thresholds.

Therefore, each top risk in the 2024 risk map has a defined action plan with a degree of progress in line with the established deadlines. Its implementation level is periodically monitored, and additionally, each risk has associated KRI alert indicators on the need to reinforce control measures by its risk owner.

F INTERNAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL SYSTEMS RELATED TO THE PROCESS OF ISSUING FINANCIAL REPORTING (ICFR)

Describe the mechanisms comprised in the control and risk management systems for the issuing of financial reporting (ICFR) of your company.

F.1 The entity's control environment

Report on at least the following, describing their main characteristics:

F.1.1. Which bodies and/or functions are responsible for: (i) the existence and maintenance of suitable and effective ICFR; (ii) its implementation; and (iii) its supervision.

The Internal Control Over Financial Reporting System (hereinafter "ICFR") forms part of the Internal Control System and is configured as a series of processes carried out by the Board of Directors, the Audit and Compliance Committee (hereinafter "CAC"), senior management and the personnel involved in order to provide reasonable certainty as to the reliability of the regulated, never absolute, financial reporting in relation to the objectives that it pursues, due to the limitations inherent in any internal control system.

The responsibilities regarding the SCIIF (Internal Control System over Financial Information) fall on:

- The Board of Directors: has the ultimate responsibility for the existence and maintenance of an adequate and effective SCIIF.
- The Audit and Compliance Committee: is responsible for overseeing the SCIIF.
- Senior Management: is responsible for its design, implementation, and operation as the first line of defence.

The Internal Control and Risk Management Department, which depends directly from the CFO and the CAC, fosters control awareness in the Group's business units, promoting awareness regarding control requirements at all organisational levels and carries out monitoring, providing continuous support in their work, including: (i) definition of documentation associated with the ICFR, (ii) validation of the effectiveness of the controls, and (iii) implementation of the action plans, if applicable, entrusted.

The monitoring function of the process of drafting and reporting financial data related to the Dia Group must be monitored on an ongoing basis, supervising the drafting and reporting process and the clarity and integrity of the Dia Group's economic and financial information, reviewing compliance with the regulatory requirements, the proper definition of the scope of consolidation and the correct application of accounting principles, in order to safeguard its integrity. It must also assess compliance with statutory requirements and the correct application of the generally accepted accounting principles. The main duties related to the internal control and risk management systems, set forth in Article 9 of the aforementioned Regulations, include most notably: a) reviewing periodically the effectiveness of the internal control and risk management systems as a whole; b) supervising the risk management control policy for risks with an impact on the achievement of corporate objectives; [and] c) fostering a culture of control in which risk is a factor to be considered in the Dia Group's decision-making.

F.1.2. Whether the following components exist, especially in connection with the financial reporting process:

- Departments and/or mechanisms in charge of: (i) designing and reviewing the organisational structure; (ii) defining clear lines of responsibility and authority with an appropriate distribution of tasks and functions; and (iii) ensuring that there are sufficient procedures for their effective circulation within the company.

The person most responsible for the design and review of the Group's organisational structure, the responsibilities undertaken by each of its members, and the status that these members have based on the responsibilities they assume, is the Group CEO, and the Group CHRO assuming the execution duties.

In the case of senior management, as well as the modification of its terms, these positions are approved by the Board of Directors at the proposal of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, with the proposal of the Group CEO and the Group CHRO.

Reporting to the Group CEO, the responsibility for defining an organizational model and business units falls to the figure of the country CEO. The unit HR Director takes responsibility for its implementation, the organizational model of the country / business unit and communication in their respective fields.

The Human Resources Department takes responsibility for defining an organisational model and business units, and, via the country HR Director/business unit, they take responsibility for implementing and communicating them in their respective areas.

There is an organisational chart that indicates the hierarchical relationships within the Group, showing the positions and their occupants.

ICFR documentation for each of the financial processes contains a risk and control matrix that includes those responsible for the controls in relation to the process of preparing the financial information.

- Code of conduct, approving body, degree of circulation and instruction, principles and values covered (stating whether there are specific references to record keeping and financial reporting), body in charge of analysing cases of breach and proposing corrective or disciplinary action.

The Dia Group has a Code of Ethics approved by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors considers that the Code of Ethics (hereinafter the Code) is the best instrument to implement a top-down compliance policy, guiding its employees by example, with certain lines of conduct or behaviour.

The Code of Ethics was updated, approved by the Board of Directors, published and communicated to the employees in 2021. A new Code of Ethics' content update was made in June 2023 to refer to the Dia Group's corporate values approved in 2022. This Code establishes and implements the following five ethical principles:

- Respect – we respect people and generate a spirit of collaboration and an environment of trust, diverse and inclusive, in which we defend different opinions.
- Integrity – we act in an integral and transparent manner. We seek to do the right thing and achieve the best results without harming the interests of others.
- Commitment – our passion and commitment are that the client and the rest of the Dia Group stakeholders are an essential part of our Company.
- Loyalty – we work loyally, complying with all the regulations and commitments to which Dia Group adheres; we strive to seek continuous growth and to learn every day the implications of our activity and the way in which it is regulated.
- Responsibility – in our daily work, we prioritize simplicity in what we do. We focus on taking care of the assets and information that the Company makes available to us.

In connection with financial information, assets and information are protected and Dia's commitment to providing accurate and complete information is explained, ensuring the reliability and accuracy of all financial information, whether used internally or reported to the market. The Dia Group has a Group Ethics Committee, which regularly reports to the Board of Directors, specifically to the CAC. In addition, there are Ethics Committees in each of the countries where the Dia Group carries on its activity. These committees have sufficient autonomy and independence to pursue their remit. The Code is of mandatory compliance for all employees.

All Group Directors have agreed in writing to submit to the Code, with the commitment to respect the ethical principles, enforce them in the teams under their responsibility and put them into practice. Likewise, all new employees, when signing their employment contract, will receive a copy of the Code and must sign an agreement to submit to it. In the same vein, on an annual basis, all employees undergo mandatory training related to the Code of Ethics, in which the employee accepts and adheres to the content of the Code.

The most relevant tools available to the Compliance Function and to the Ethics Committees to disseminate the Dia Group's Ethics and Integrity Culture are (i) the training sessions conducted each year on all or some of the ethical principles and (ii) the management of the reports received through the Ethics Hotline (see next section).

- Whistle-blowing channel, for reporting to the audit committee any irregularities of a financial or accounting nature, as well as potential breaches of the code of conduct and malpractice within the organisation, stating whether reports made through this channel are confidential and whether it enables anonymous reports to be made respecting the rights of the whistle-blower and the party being reported.

The Dia Group has a unified communication channel ("Ethics Hotline") for submitting queries and/or complaints online or by phone. This channel guarantees that the Dia Group's activity is carried on securely, transparently and effectively. Using the WhistleB platform, the Dia Group offers an open, transparent and secure space in which any third party and, in particular, employees, franchisees and suppliers, can resolve any questions they may have on the interpretation of Dia Group's Code of Ethics and report potential breaches thereof.

All questions, reports and claims are received by the Group Compliance Department, which forwards the cases to the corresponding corporate and/or country Ethics Committee. Any breach of the Code of Ethics is analysed and managed by the corporate and/or country Ethics Committee in accordance with its operating protocol and is resolved pursuant to the applicable internal and external regulations. Communications and/or reports received, whether in someone's name or anonymously, will be assessed and processed in compliance with three general basic principles: (i) confidentiality, (ii) non-retaliation, and (iii) personal data protection. Thus, the data of complainants and of any person involved in the investigation will be treated confidentially in accordance with the personal data protection legislation applicable in each jurisdiction, with zero tolerance of retaliation against employees using the Ethics Hotline in good faith in order to inform the Ethics Committee of possible irregularities. The Ethics Hotline is managed in the Whistleblowing Centre, which ensures that all questions and reports made through the channel are encrypted and protected with security measures. Accordingly, the Ethics Committees can communicate confidentially with the reporting and/or requesting party, and proper records are kept of all elements of the file.

In 2024, on a quarterly basis, the Ethics Committees of each country sent the corporate Ethics Committee an itemised report of the reports received and investigated during the immediately preceding quarter, stating the reference or registration number, date of receipt, type of whistle-blower (employee, franchisee, supplier of service or merchandise, or others), the ethical principle affected, procedural status of the file and, as the case may be, its resolution. In addition, a report is regularly sent to the CAC, providing consolidated statistics at Group level.

Another of the priorities to achieve an improvement in the Group's ethical management and greater trust of collaborators and other stakeholders is to achieve greater agility in the management of complaints that come through the ethics line, reducing the average resolution time compared to 2023.

- Training and refresher courses for staff involved in financial reporting, as well as in assessing the ICFR, which address at least accounting standards, auditing, internal control and risk management.

Dia Group's training plan has the mission to play a key role in contributing to the achievement of the Company's strategic objectives and the professional and personal development of its collaborators. To do this, it is divided into two separate chapters:

- There are technical training courses aimed at equipping its collaborators, through official training, with the technical know-how needed for the performance of their job position.
- Training plan for the development of skills aimed at providing, through official training, the necessary skills for holding positions of greater responsibility. This includes special training programs, such as languages, skill development, cross-awareness and others.

The preparation and review of financial information, as well as the evaluation of the ICFR, require specific knowledge of accounting and consolidation matters, processes, risks and internal control. The updating of this knowledge is encouraged through attendance at seminars, training events, updated newsletters, publications, information from industry associations and other media. It is worth noting that during 2024 the members of the Internal Control and Risk Management team obtained the COSO ERM-Enterprise Risk Management and COSO Internal Control certifications, and the Internal Audit team attended various training courses on auditing, internal control, and risk management, which represented a total of 310 hours in 2024.

F.2 Assessment of risks in financial reporting

Report on at least the following:

F.2.1. What are the main characteristics of the risk identification process, including those risks of error or fraud, in terms of:

- Whether the process exists and is documented.

Dia Group develops practices for the design and maintenance of an internal control system that makes it possible to provide reasonable certainty as to the reliability of official financial reporting, which includes the process aimed at identifying risks of error or fraud in financial reporting, based on the internationally recognised COSO internal control-integrated framework.

As regards the risk identification process, the Corporate Policy on the Internal Control Over Financial Reporting System establishes that the assessment of risks enables it to analyse the accounts and the disclosures that have a significant associated risk, the potential impact of which on financial reporting is material.

The starting point for managing financial reporting risks consists of identifying the risks that may affect it. To this end, the information contained in the Group's most relevant financial statements is analysed, selecting the most relevant accounting items based on quantitative and qualitative . The selected items are associated with processes where information is generated through the assessment of the risks identified and the analysis of the impact of potential events on the achievement of objectives related to the reliability of the financial information.

The ICFR manual establishes that the functional directions are responsible for identifying the risks of error or fraud in the financial reporting.

In this respect, any risks that may give rise to errors and/or fraud in the financial reporting are identified for each of the significant accounts and disclosures.

Additionally, the Dia Group's risk identification process considers:

- The understanding of the control environment of each Group country.
- The identification of the particular features of the Company's business process flows in each country, and their impact on financial reporting, in order to identify the main control risks inherent therein.
- The effects of other types of risk (operating, financial, strategic, regulatory compliance and others) that may have an adverse effect on the reliability of financial reporting.

As a result of this assessment, a matrix that identifies risks (scoping matrix) is obtained, where the risk areas are identified in order to prioritise and oversee the relevant processes and controls that mitigate the risks detected in this analysis. For the continuous review and monitoring of the SCIIF (Internal Control System over Financial Information), an annual work plan is followed. This plan is prepared based on Audit work methodologies and following the International Standard on Auditing "Materiality in Planning and Performing an Audit" (ISA 320).

The scope matrix of the SCIIF:

- Is prepared based on the audited Consolidated Financial Statements as of December 31st of the closed year, and is updated annually.
- Is approved by the Audit and Compliance Committee.

- Its purpose is to identify the accounts and breakdowns that have a significant associated risk, whose potential impact on the financial information could be material. In this way, the approach for determining the scope of SCIIF work is based on risk management as well as a system for analyzing variations (qualitative and quantitative criteria):
 - Quantitative criteria: based on the external auditor's materiality.
 - Qualitative criteria:
 - Size: discrimination of the account compared to planning materiality.
 - Process automation: automation vs. manual processes.
 - Degree of SCIIF documentation update: assessment of the update of the documentation associated with the processes.
 - Susceptibility to fraud or error: risks of fraud or unintentional error.
 - Degree of estimation/judgment and valuations: consideration of the degree of estimation and/or judgment required for the recording of transactions.
 - Changes from the previous year: consideration of potential changes in accounting treatment, changes in the economic environment, or in the process itself.
 - Internal Control Weaknesses: consideration of control adjustments/weaknesses identified by internal/external auditors with an impact on previous years

- Whether the process covers all the financial reporting objectives (existence and occurrence; integrity; valuation; presentation, breakdown and comparability; and rights and obligations), whether it is updated and how frequently.

Each ICFR process at the Dia Group has the following associated documentation: process flowcharts, descriptions of the same, control and risk matrices, as well as the rules, policies, procedures and IT systems that support it.

For each relevant account and breakdown, the processes, sub-processes and key activities associated with them are defined, and the risks that could generate errors and/or fraud in financial information are identified, covering all the financial information objectives:

- Existence and occurrence: The transactions, facts and other events gathered by the financial reporting actually exist and have been recorded at the right time.
- Integrity: The information reflects all of the transactions, facts and other events in which the entity is an affected party.
- Valuation: The transactions, facts and other events are recorded and valued in accordance with the applicable legislation.
- Presentation, breakdown and comparability: The transactions, facts and other events are classified, presented and disclosed in the financial reporting in accordance with the applicable legislation.
- Rights and obligations: The financial information reflects rights and obligations, as at the corresponding date, through the relevant assets and liabilities, in accordance with the applicable legislation.

- Whether a specific process is in place to define the scope of consolidation, with reference to, inter alia, the possible existence of complex corporate structures, shell companies or special purpose vehicles.

Each quarter the Group's Legal Department confirms the data on the companies forming part of the group of companies to the Group's Reporting Department, which is organisationally dependent on the Group's Finance Department.

The Dia Group's internal rules regulate the responsibility of each country's legal department for keeping the country's corporate and control structure up to date, and the duty to report on it to the country's Finance Department and to the Group's Legal Department on a quarterly basis and/or whenever a change occurs. In turn, the country's Finance Department and the Group's Legal Department report to the Group Reporting Department on the country's scope of consolidation and on the corporate and control structure within the Group, respectively, so that the Group Reporting Department can determine the scope of consolidation of the Group.

The monitoring and updating of each country's corporate structure, as well as the process of reporting and/or communicating with the Group's Legal Department and the Group's Reporting Department, are mandatory since this is a corporate governance rule included in the Dia Group's internal rules.

- Whether the process addresses other types of risk (operating, technological, financial, legal, tax, reputational, environmental, etc.) insofar as they may affect the financial statements.

As is detailed in section E of this report, the Dia Group has a risk management model based on the "Enterprise Risk Management - Integrating Strategy and Performance" methodological standard published by COSO. Said standard, generally accepted in the market, has been adapted to the Dia Group's needs with a comprehensive, systematic and detailed approach that enables it to identify, assess and respond to the risks related to the achievement of its business objectives.

The Dia Group's business risk management process guarantees the identification of the different types of financial and non-financial risk the organisation is exposed to (among others, operating, strategic, compliance, technological, social, environmental, and reputational risks), including among the financial ones the tax ones as well.

The different types of risk to which the Group is exposed are applied not only in the aforementioned financial reporting processes, but also in all operating and technical processes that could have a significant impact on the accounting or management figures.

- Which of the company's governing bodies is responsible for overseeing the process.

Responsibility for the existence and maintenance of an adequate and effective ICFR lies ultimately with the Board of Directors.

The oversight thereof is the responsibility of the CAC, with the execution carried out by the Group's Internal Control and Risk Management Department.

The CAC, in accordance with the functions corresponding to it, includes in its annual report the tasks carried out in its role as supervisor of the Internal Control System during 2023, including most notably:

- Supervising the process to prepare and present the (quarterly and six-monthly) mandatory economic and financial information, both individual and consolidated, reported to the markets and to their supervisory bodies.
- A suitably defined scope of consolidation, correctly applying the generally accepted accounting principles, and safeguarding the integrity of financial information.
- Supervising relationships with the external auditor, as well as its performance of the audit contract.
- Assessing and approving the Internal Audit Plan.
- Supervising and monitoring the activities of the Internal Audit.
- Supervising the monitoring of the findings of the assessment of the ICFR for key and material processes in Spain and in the other countries in which the Dia Group operates.
- Systematically monitoring and supervising Risk Management carried out in the Dia Group.
- Reviewing related-party transactions.
- Monitoring compliance with the Internal Rules of Conduct, the Board Regulations and, in general, the Dia Group's corporate governance rules, without having detected any significant breaches.
- Reviewing and approving this 2024 Annual Corporate Governance Report, in particular the matters specifically concerning the Committee itself, which are set forth in sections C, E, F and H of this Annual Report.

F.3 Control activities

Report on the existence of at least the following, and specify their main characteristics:

F.3.1. Procedures for reviewing and authorising financial information and description of the ICFR to be disclosed to the securities markets, stating who is responsible in each case and the documentation describing the flow of activities and controls (including those addressing the risk of fraud) for each type of transaction that could materially affect the financial statements, including accounting close procedures and the specific review of critical judgements, estimates, evaluations and projections.

The consolidated financial statements, including the half-yearly reports, are prepared from the information reported by each business unit. The Group's Reporting Department, which is part of the Financial Department, carries out the consolidation process. The consolidated financial information is reviewed by the Group's Financial Department and the Audit and Compliance Committee before its publication and, where appropriate, approval/formulation by the Board of Directors.

Monthly, the Group's Financial Department reports the most relevant management information to Senior Management (the Group's Management Committee), including the income statement and the evolution of the main economic indicators. This Committee, in turn, reports it to the Board of Directors. This information is previously reviewed by:

- The Financial Directors and the Management Committee of each country.
- The Group's Financial Department.
- The teams of the Group's Financial Department and the Business Units, jointly.

On the other hand, the Group's external auditor performs a limited review of the Group's consolidated interim condensed financial statements under IAS 34, "Interim Financial Reporting" and the audit of the Group's consolidated annual accounts under IFRS.

The functional departments of each country have documented the risks of error or fraud in the financial information and the controls that mitigate these risks affecting the following processes/sub-processes:

- Management of creditors and general expenses.
- Treasury and banks.
- Closing.
- Consolidation and reporting.
- Purchases.
- Inventory.
- Valuation of goodwill.
- Management of accounts receivable from franchisees.
- Taxes.
- Management of tangible fixed assets.
- Contingent liabilities.
- Personnel.
- Sales.
- E-commerce sales.

The closing, consolidation and reporting processes, as well as all those affected by relevant judgments, estimates, valuations and projections, are of particular relevance.

The documentation of each of the processes is composed of:

- Detail of the significant accounts and breakdowns.

- Detail of the information systems that affect the sub-processes.
- Detail of the procedures and internal rules approved by Management, which regulate these sub-processes.
- Detail of the organizational structures.
- Descriptions of each of the sub-processes associated with each process.
- Flowcharts of each of these sub-processes.
- Detail of the significant financial information risks (including those related to fraud risk), as well as others (operational and/or compliance) associated with the different sub-processes and control objectives.
- Detailed description of the key and non-key controls that mitigate each of the identified risks.
- Result of the internal control design evaluation carried out by the Group SCIIF, identifying opportunities for improvement and defining the action plans, those responsible and the deadline for their implementation.

For each of the controls, the following have been identified:

- Supporting evidence of the controls.
- Organizational structures and/or job functions responsible for each of the identified controls. In addition, in the SAP GRC tool, each of the owners of the controls, as well as those responsible for their validation, has been individually identified.
- Frequency of controls.
- Level of automation of controls.
- Type of control: preventive or detective.

The responsibility for keeping this information updated lies with the control owners, that is, the owners of each control and those responsible for their supervision. Therefore, for each of the controls, the owner and those responsible for their validation have been individually identified in order to have, in addition, maximum traceability. The documentation associated with each of the processes (narrative and flowchart) will be updated when there are changes that modify the reality of the established process and is available in the Dia Group Regulatory Site accessible to all employees.

The Internal Control and Risk Management Department carries out a continuous process of updating and monitoring the correct functioning of the financial information internal control system through the SAP GRC Process Control tool, ensuring its quality and reasonable reliability under a single centralized environment. The approval flow (approval protocol) of the documentation is the signature through SAP GRC by the CFO, as well as the person directly responsible for the process of the Business Unit that applies the process.

The procedure for reviewing and authorizing financial information is formalized annually through internal certifications at the Country CFO level with the approval of the CEO of the business unit/country, as well as by the Group CFO and the Group CEO. This process culminates with its presentation to the CAC, prior to the formulation of the Annual Accounts by the Board of Directors.

F.3.2. Internal control policies and procedures for IT systems (including secure access, control of changes, system operation, continuity and segregation of duties) that support the relevant company processes in relation to the preparation and publication of financial information.

Grupo Dia has an information security team, headed by the CISO (Chief Information Security Officer) and composed of multidisciplinary teams for the functions of (1) Security Engineering, (2) Security Operations, (3) Information Security Governance, Risk and Compliance, and (4) Cyber-Resilience. The Information Security team is integrated into the information technology (IT) team reporting to Grupo Dia's CTO (Chief Technology Officer) and follows a periodically updated Security Master Plan, which is reported to Grupo Dia's Management and its control bodies and whose objectives are to maintain control levels over information systems, as well as identify and implement improvements identified on them in accordance with the organization's objectives.

There is a Corporate Information Security Policy (reviewed and updated on an annual basis) that includes the information protection strategy in relation to security linked to human resources, training and awareness, asset management, vulnerability management, access control, encryption, physical and environmental security, security in operations, security in communications, , project and development security, third-party security, asset monitoring, security incident management, compliance and contact with authorities, continuous monitoring and improvement, and data retention guidelines.

The policy defines the methods used to mitigate risks affecting confidentiality, integrity and availability of all information, including financial reporting.

The policy guidelines are developed in a security regulatory framework which is reviewed and updated periodically in accordance with the company's evolution.

At Grupo Dia we are constantly identifying and implementing ITGCs controls and the main systems that support financial processes, with the aim of ensuring levels of internal control and security over the critical systems of the Dia Group.

In addition, periodic reviews are carried out on the systems, processes and controls (both internally and by the external auditor) to verify compliance with internal rules and policies.

F.3.3. Internal control policies and procedures for overseeing the management of outsourced activities, and of the appraisal, calculation or valuation services entrusted to independent experts, where these could materially affect the financial statements.

When the Group outsources certain tasks to third parties, it ensures the technical capacity, independence, competence and solvency of the subcontractor, to ensure that it is a prestigious company in the relevant country.

It should be noted that Dia Group has a "Consolidation Rule", which forms part of the Group's Binding Rules. Said Rule is posted in the corporate rules portal and includes a specific section on hiring this kind of firms in order to control at group level the agreements reached by the Dia Group, with the aim of establishing the bases that make it possible to improve ongoing negotiations and control the technical skills, independence, competence and solvency of the involved providers.

In 2024, significant activities outsourced to third parties with an impact on the financial statements were the use of tax advisory services and support in the financial back-office for the execution of certain controls. These activities were carried on by firms of recognised prestige and validated by duly qualified Group staff supervised by the Management, which checked the fundamental assumptions used by the experts, as well as the reasonableness of their conclusions.

In addition, other activities have been outsourced to third parties such as tax, accounting and corporate book management services for the Luxembourg companies.

F.4 Information and communication

Report on the existence of at least the following, and specify their main characteristics:

F.4.1. A specific function in charge of defining and keeping accounting policies up to date (accounting policies area or department) and settling doubts or disputes over their interpretation, which is in regular communication with the team in charge of operations at the company, as well as an updated accounting policies manual provided to all company operating units.

The Group's Finance Department, through the Group's Reporting Department, is responsible for defining, updating, and supervising the correct application of accounting policies, as well as answering any questions or doubts that may arise in their interpretation. It is also responsible for communicating any changes in accounting regulations that affect the presentation of financial information to the heads of business units and global teams. The Group updates the Group Accounting Policies Manual annually, based on the International Financial Reporting Standards adopted by the European Union (EU-IFRS). The latest update of this Manual was made in December 2024. In the event of significant changes affecting any of the Accounting Policies, a communication is sent to the relevant parties and the corresponding impacts are analysed jointly by the Group's Reporting Department

F.4.2. Mechanisms in standard format for the collection and preparation of financial information, which are applied and used by all units within the entity or group, and support the main financial statements and notes thereto, as well as disclosures concerning ICFR.

The financial information that the Group publishes in the stock market is in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). In this sense, the information reported from the countries, as mentioned in section F.4.1, follows these regulations.

The Group has a common consolidation tool for all countries. This tool, after loading the data extracted from SAP by each country, allows for the preparation of financial information with uniform formats and facilitates the consolidation process.

The data loading is done manually, extracting the data from SAP and loading it into the tool. For this purpose, preventive controls have been defined in the tool itself to ensure correct data loading. In this way, the information from the individual financial statements of all units of the Group is centralized in a single tool with the same chart of accounts.

The information supporting the breakdowns and notes to the financial statements is included in the same tool and is reported by the countries, whose reporting format is updated when appropriate by the Group's Reporting Department.

F.5 Supervision of the functioning of the system

Report on at least the following, describing their main characteristics:

F.5.1. The ICFR monitoring activities undertaken by the audit committee and whether the entity has an internal audit function whose tasks include that of supporting the audit committee in its role as supervisor of the internal control systems, including the ICFR. Report on the scope of the ICFR assessment performed during the year and the procedure used by those in charge of the assessment to report their findings, whether the entity has an action plan that details eventual corrective measures, and whether their impact on the financial information has been considered.

The CAC is responsible for "supervising and periodically reviewing the effectiveness of internal control," relying on the Internal Audit Department to do so.

The Group has an Internal Audit Department that reports hierarchically and functionally to the CAC.

Within the annual internal audit plan, the Internal Audit Department of Grupo Dia evaluates the design and operation of the SCIIF process controls in areas or processes determined by their special relevance and according to the Annual Internal Audit Plan. Additionally, during fiscal year 2024 and, in accordance with the audit plan approved by the CAC, the Internal Audit Department performed a limited review of the SCIIF certification process in relation to fiscal year 2023, the results of which were presented to the responsible Management, as well as the Group CEO and the CAC.

The Internal Audit Department periodically reports to the CAC on the level of implementation of the action plans agreed upon with the auditees.

On the other hand, as a second line of defense, the Group's Risk Management and Internal Control Department is the area responsible for the design, implementation, operation and monitoring of the SCIIF, and for promoting the control culture in the Group's various business units.

Likewise, in 2024 and in compliance with the annual internal control plan approved by the CAC, the SCIIF assessment has been carried out. This plan is based on the certification of different processes based on the external auditor's materiality and qualitative criteria of the area. The key SCIIF controls of the selected processes in the countries where the Dia Group operates have been reviewed by means of design tests and effectiveness testing, in order to determine the effectiveness and efficiency of the SCIIF controls, as well as the continuous improvement of the internal control system. This entire process of continuous reinforcement of the SCIIF in the Group is carried out with a multi-country approach in which the CFOs and CEOs of the business units are responsible for the SCIIF controls.

F.5.2. Whether there is a discussion procedure whereby the auditor (pursuant to TAS), the internal audit function and other experts can report any significant internal control weaknesses identified during their review of the financial statements or other assignments entrusted to them, to the company's senior management and to the audit committee or company Directors. Likewise, state whether the entity has an action plan to correct or mitigate the weaknesses found.

Article 23 of the Board Regulations and Article 6 of the Audit and Compliance Committee Regulations set forth the power of the CAC related to serving as a communication channel between the Board of Directors and the auditors, assessing the findings of each audit and the management team's response to their recommendations, and intermediating in cases of discrepancies between the former and the latter regarding the applicable principles and criteria to be used to prepare the financial statements.

The external auditor is invited to all CAC meetings. This year, they have attended all of them. Moreover, on an annual basis, the accounts auditor formally informs the CAC of any significant internal control weaknesses detected in the performance of its work, if any.

Annually, the account auditor meets with the members of the Board of Directors, in full, without the presence of the Group CEO or other members of Dia Group's management.

As described in section F.5.1., the CAC approves the scope determined in the annual scope matrix and receives reports on the findings of the ICFR reviews and on the status of implementation of any remediation plans arising as a result thereof.

F.6 Other relevant information

Not applicable

F.7 External auditor's report

Report on:

F.7.1. Whether the ICFR information reported to the market has been reviewed by the external auditor, in which case the corresponding report should be attached as a schedule. If not, explain the reasons why.

The scope of the auditor's review procedures for the 2024 fiscal year was performed in accordance with the Guidance on the Auditor's Report referred to in the Information regarding the Internal Control System over Financial Reporting of Listed Entities, published by the National Securities Market Commission on its website, which is attached as an annex.

G DEGREE OF COMPLIANCE WITH CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RECOMMENDATIONS

Indicate the degree of the company's compliance with the recommendations of the Good Governance Code of Listed Companies.

If the company does not comply with any of the recommendations or complies only in part, include a detailed explanation of the reasons so that shareholders, investors and the market in general have enough information to assess the company's behaviour. General explanations will not be acceptable.

1. The bylaws of listed companies should not place an upper limit on the votes that can be cast by a single shareholder or impose other obstacles to the takeover of the company by means of share purchases on the market.

Complies ☒ Explain ☐

2. Where the listed company is controlled by another entity within the meaning of Article 42 of the Commercial Code, listed or unlisted, and has, directly or through its subsidiaries, business relationships with another entity or any of its subsidiaries (other than those of the listed company) or pursues activities related to any of them, the following should be reported publicly and precisely:
- a) The respective areas of activity and any business relationships between on the one hand, the listed company or its subsidiaries and, on the other, the parent company or its subsidiaries.
- b) The mechanisms in place to resolve possible conflicts of interest.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

3. During the annual shareholders' meeting, the chairperson of the Board should verbally inform shareholders in sufficient detail of the most relevant aspects of the company's corporate governance, supplementing the written information circulated in the annual corporate governance report. In particular:
- a) Changes that have occurred since the last Annual Shareholders' Meeting.
- b) Specific reasons why the company has not followed one or more of the recommendations of the Code of Corporate Governance and the alternative rules applied, if any.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

4. The company should draw up and implement a policy for communications and contact with shareholders and institutional investors within the framework of their involvement in the company, as well as with proxy advisors, that complies in full with market abuse regulations and accords equitable treatment to shareholders in the same position. This policy should be disclosed on the company's website, including details of how it has been put into practice and stating the contact persons or persons responsible for its implementation.

Further, without prejudice to the legal obligations of disclosure of inside information and other regulated information, the company should also have a general policy for the communication of economic-financial, non-financial and corporate information through the channels it considers appropriate (media, social media or other channels) that helps maximise the dissemination and quality of the information available to the market, investors and other stakeholders.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

5. The Board of Directors should not make a proposal to the shareholders' meeting for the delegation of powers to issue shares or convertible securities without pre-emptive subscription rights for an amount exceeding 20% of capital at the time of such delegation.

When a Board approves the issuance of shares or convertible securities without pre-emptive subscription rights, the company should immediately publish a report on its website explaining the exclusion as envisaged in company legislation.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

6. Listed companies drawing up the following reports on a voluntary or compulsory basis should publish them on their website well in advance of the annual shareholders' meeting, even if their disclosure is not obligatory:

- a) Report on auditor independence.
- b) Reports on the workings of the audit and nomination and remuneration committees.
- c) Audit committee report on related-party transactions.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

7. The company should broadcast its shareholders' meetings live on the corporate website.

The company should have mechanisms that allow the delegation and exercise of votes by electronic means and even, in the case of large-cap companies and, to the extent that it is proportionate, attendance and active participation in the shareholders' meeting.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☒ Explain ☐

The Annual General Shareholders' Meeting held on 28 June 2024 and the General Shareholders' Meeting held on 27 December 2024 were only partially broadcast live, which was considered sufficient given Grupo DIA's capital structure.

In addition, the Company complies with the second part of the recommendation, since in both General Shareholders' Meeting, mechanisms were put in place for shareholders to grant a proxy, vote, and participate by electronic means in the General Meeting.

8. The audit committee should strive to ensure that the financial statements that the Board of Directors presents to the shareholders' meeting are drawn up in accordance to accounting legislation. And that in cases in which the auditor has included a qualification or reservation in its audit report, the chairperson of the audit committee should clearly explain to the general meeting the opinion of the audit committee on its content and scope, making a summary of this opinion available to shareholders at the time when the meeting is called, alongside the other Board proposals and reports.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

9. The company should disclose its conditions and procedures for evidencing share ownership, the right to attend shareholders' meetings and the exercise or delegation of voting rights and display them permanently on its website.

Such conditions and procedures should facilitate shareholder attendance and the exercise of shareholder rights and be applied in a non-discriminatory manner.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

10. When a verified shareholder exercises the right to supplement the agenda or submit new proposals prior to the shareholders' meeting, the company should:

- a) Immediately circulate the supplementary items and new proposals.
- b) Publish the duly modified specimen attendance card or proxy appointment or remote voting form so that new agenda items and alternative proposals can be voted on in the same terms as proposals made by the Board of Directors.
- c) Put all these items or alternative proposals to a vote, applying the same voting rules as for those submitted by the Board of Directors, with particular regard to assumptions concerning the direction of votes.

- d) After the shareholders' meeting, disclose the breakdown of votes on such supplementary items or alternative proposals.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

11. In the event that the company plans to pay fees for attendance at the shareholders' meeting, it should first establish a general, long-term policy in this respect.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

12. The Board of Directors should perform its duties with unity of purpose and independent judgment, providing the same treatment to all shareholders in the same position. It should be guided at all times by the company's best interest, understood as the creation of a profitable business that promotes its sustainable success over time, while maximising its economic value.

In pursuing corporate interest, it should not only abide by laws and regulations and conduct itself according to principles of good faith, ethics and respect for commonly accepted customs and good practices, but also strive to reconcile its own interests with the legitimate interests of its employees, suppliers, clients and other stakeholders, as well as with the impact of its activities on the broader community and the natural environment.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

13. The Board of Directors should have an optimal size to promote its efficient functioning and maximise participation. The recommended range is therefore between five and fifteen members.

Complies ☒ Explain ☐

14. The Board of Directors should approve a policy aimed at promoting an appropriate composition of the Board and which:

- a) is concrete and verifiable;
- b) ensures that proposals for appointment or re-appointment are based on a prior analysis of the skills required by the Board of Directors; and
- c) favours a diversity of knowledge, experience, age and gender. For these purposes, measures that encourage the company to have a significant number of female senior managers are considered to favour gender diversity.

The outcome of the preliminary analysis of the skills required by the Board of Directors should be set out in the explanatory report of the appointment committee, to be published when the shareholders' meeting is called that is to ratify the appointment or re-appointment of each Director.

The appointments committee should run an annual check on compliance with this policy and set out its findings in the annual corporate governance report.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

15. Nominee and independent Directors should constitute an ample majority on the Board of Directors, while the number of executive Directors should be the minimum necessary, bearing in mind the complexity of the corporate group and the ownership interests they control.

Further, the number of female Directors should account for at least 40% of the members of the Board of Directors before the end of 2022 and thereafter, and not less than 30% previous to that.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☒ Explain ☐

The first paragraph of this recommendation is complied with since as of 31 December 2024, the Board of Directors does not have any Director with the category of executive in its composition.

With regard to the second paragraph of the recommendation, DIA's Board of Directors does not currently meet the target female board membership level of 40%. The Board will endeavour to ensure that the successive searches to select candidates to fill the existing vacancy enable it to approach the target of 40% set for the following years. This recommendation has been reinforced by the new wording of article 529 bis of the Capital Companies Act (which was amended in August 2024), which provides that the Company must have a composition that ensures the presence of at least 40% of the less represented sex as of June 30, 2027.

It should be noted that, in the selection processes for new directors, the Board has always kept in mind the need to increase female participation, although in recent years the only changes it has addressed in its composition have affected only the designation of new proprietary directors in which there is a proposal from the majority shareholder. Additionally, the re-elections of the members of the board of directors (7 of the 8 directors) were approved at the last Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders that took place in June 2024, prior to the entry into force of the new article 529 bis of the Capital Companies Act.

In view of the foregoing, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee has assumed the function of setting a representation target for the less represented sex on the Board and has drawn up guidelines on how to achieve this target. The Board will promote that successive searches aimed at selecting candidates to fill future vacancies will allow this target to be met.

16. The percentage of nominee Directors out of all non-executive Directors should be no greater than the proportion between the capital of the shareholder they represent and the remainder of the company's capital.

This criterion can be relaxed:

- a) At large cap companies where few shareholdings are legally considered significant shareholdings.
- b) In companies with a plurality of shareholders represented on the Board but not otherwise related.

Complies ☒ Explain ☐

17. Independent Directors should represent at least half of all Board members.

However, when the company does not have a large market capitalisation, or when a large cap company has a shareholder or several shareholders acting in concert that control more than 30% of the share capital, independent Directors should make up, at least, one-third of Board members.

Complies ☒ Explain ☐

18. Companies should disclose the following Director information on their websites and keep it regularly updated:

- a) Professional experience and background.
- b) Directorships held at other companies, listed or otherwise, and other paid activities they engage in, of any nature.
- c) Statement of the Director category to which they belong, in the case of nominee Directors, indicating the shareholder they represent or have links with.
- d) Dates of their first appointment as a Board member and subsequent re-appointments.
- e) Shares held in the company, and any options on same.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

19. Following verification by the nomination committee, the annual corporate governance report should disclose the reasons for the appointment of nominee Directors at the request of shareholders controlling less than 3% of capital; and explain any rejection of formal requests for Board representation from shareholders whose shareholding is equal to or greater than that of other shareholders who have successfully requested the appointment of nominee Directors.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

20. Nominee Directors should resign when the shareholders they represent dispose of their shareholding in its entirety. If such shareholders reduce their shareholdings to a level that requires a reduction in the number of their nominee Directors, the number of nominee Directors should be reduced accordingly.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

21. The Board of Directors should not propose the removal of independent Directors before the end of bylaw term for which they were appointed, except where it considers there is just cause, based on a report by the nomination committee. In particular, just cause will be deemed to exist when Directors take on new offices or responsibilities that prevent them from dedicating the necessary time to the performance of their functions as Director, breach the duties inherent in their office or become subject to any circumstances that strip them of their status as an independent Director, in accordance with the provisions of the applicable legislation.

The removal of independent Directors may also be proposed as a result of takeover bids, mergers or similar corporate transactions that entail a change to the company's capital structure, where such changes in Board structure arise from the proportionality criterion set out in recommendation 16.

Complies ☒ Explain ☐

22. Companies should establish rules obliging Directors to disclose any circumstance that might harm the organisation's name or reputation, related or not to their actions within the company, and tendering their resignation as the case may be, and, in particular, to inform the Board of any criminal proceeding in which they appear as investigated parties, and of any developments in its procedural steps.

When the Board is informed or becomes aware of any of the situations mentioned in the previous paragraph, the Board of Directors should examine the case as soon as possible and, attending to the particular circumstances, decide, based on a report from the nomination and remuneration committee, whether or not to adopt any measures such as opening of an internal investigation, calling on the Director to resign or proposing their dismissal. Information should be provided in the annual corporate governance report, unless there are special circumstances that justify otherwise, which must be recorded in the minutes. This without prejudice to the information that the company must disseminate, if appropriate, at the time when the corresponding measures are implemented

23. Directors should express their clear opposition when they consider a proposal submitted to the Board could be contrary to the corporate interest. In particular, independent and other Directors not affected by the potential conflict of interest should challenge any decision that could harm the interests of shareholders not represented on the Board.

When the Board makes significant or repeated decisions about which a Director has expressed serious reservations, then such Director must draw the pertinent conclusions and, should they choose to resign, explain their reasons in the letter referred to in the next recommendation.

The terms of this recommendation also apply to the Board secretary, even if they are not a director.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

24. Directors who give up their position before their tenure expires, through resignation or resolution of the shareholders' meeting, should state the reasons for this decision, or in the case of non-executive Directors, their opinion of the reasons for the shareholders' meeting resolution, in a letter to be sent to all members of the Board.

Without prejudice to the reporting of all the foregoing in the annual corporate governance report, if it is relevant for investors, the company should publish an announcement of the departure as rapidly as possible, with sufficient reference to the reasons or circumstances provided by the Director.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

25. The appointments committee should ensure that non-executive Directors have sufficient time available to correctly perform their functions.

The Board regulations should establish the maximum number of company Boards on which Directors may serve.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

26. The Board should meet with the frequency necessary to effectively perform its functions and at least eight times a year, in accordance with the schedule of dates and items established at the start of the year, and each Director may propose the addition of items not initially included on the agenda.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

27. Director absences should be kept to a strict minimum and quantified in the annual corporate governance report. In the event of absence, Directors should grant a proxy with instructions.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

28. When Directors or the secretary express concerns about any proposal or, in the case of Directors, about the running of the company, and such concerns are not resolved at the Board meeting, they should be recorded in the minutes book if the person expressing them so requests.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not Applicable ☒

29. The company should provide suitable channels for Directors to obtain the advice they need to perform their functions, including, if necessary, external advice at the company's expense.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

30. Regardless of the knowledge Directors must possess to perform their functions, the companies should also offer them refresher programs when circumstances so advise.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

31. The agenda of Board meetings should clearly indicate the items on which the Board must adopt a decision or resolution so that Directors can study the matter or gather together the material they need beforehand.

For reasons of urgency, the chairperson may wish to submit decisions or resolutions for Board approval that were not included on the meeting agenda. In such exceptional circumstances, their inclusion will require the express prior consent, duly recorded in the minutes, of the majority of Directors present.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

32. Directors should be regularly informed of movements in share ownership and of the views held by significant shareholders, investors and rating agencies on the company and its group.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

33. The chairperson, as the person responsible for the effective functioning of the Board of Directors, in addition to the functions attributed by law and the company's bylaws, should prepare and submit to the Board a schedule of meeting dates and items to be addressed; organise and coordinate the periodic evaluation of the Board and, where appropriate, the company's Chief Executive Officer; be responsible for the management of the Board and for its effective functioning; ensure that sufficient time is given to the discussion of strategic matters, and approve and review refresher courses for each Director, when circumstances so advise.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

34. When a lead Director has been appointed, the bylaws or Board regulations should grant them the following powers, in addition to those conferred by law: to chair the Board of Directors in the absence of the chairperson or deputy chairmen, if any; to voice the concerns of non-executive Directors; to maintain contacts with investors and shareholders in order to ascertain their views and form an opinion about their concerns, especially those relating to the corporate governance of the company; and to coordinate the chairperson's succession plan.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not applicable ☒

35. The Board secretary should strive to ensure that the Board's actions and decisions are informed by the applicable good governance recommendations contained in the Good Governance Code.

Complies ☒ Explain ☐

36. The plenary session of the Board should conduct an annual evaluation, adopting, where necessary, an action plan to correct any weakness detected with respect to:

- a) The quality and effective functioning of the Board.
- b) The functioning and composition of its committees.
- c) Diversity in the composition and skills of the Board.
- d) The performance of the Board Chairperson and the company's Chief Executive.
- e) The performance and contribution of each Director, paying particular attention to the chairs of the various Board committees.

The evaluation of the various committees should be based on the reports sent by them to the Board of Directors, while the Board evaluation should be based on the report sent to it by the nomination committee.

Every three years, the Board of Directors should engage an external consultant to assist with the evaluation process whose independence should be verified by the nomination committee.

Any business dealings that the consultant or any company in its group has with the company or any company in its group should be detailed in the annual corporate governance report.

The process followed and areas evaluated should be detailed in the annual corporate governance report.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

37. When there is an executive committee, there should be at least two non-executive members, at least one of whom should be independent; and its secretary should be the secretary of the Board of Directors.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not applicable ☒

38. The Board should be kept fully informed of the business transacted and decisions adopted by the executive committee and all Board members should receive a copy of the committee's minutes.

Complies ☐ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not applicable ☒

39. All members of the audit committee, particularly its chairperson, should be appointed with regard to their knowledge and experience in accounting, auditing and risk management matters, both financial and non-financial.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

40. Companies should have a unit in charge of the internal audit function, under the supervision of the audit committee, to monitor the effectiveness of the reporting and internal control systems and such unit should report to the Board's non-executive chairperson or the chairperson of the audit committee.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

41. The head of the unit handling the internal audit function should present an annual work programme to the audit committee, for approval by this committee or the Board, inform it directly of any incidents or scope limitations arising during its implementation, the results and monitoring of its recommendations, and submit an activities report at the end of each year.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not applicable ☐

42. The audit committee should have the following functions in addition to those provided for in the law:

1. With respect to internal control and reporting systems:

- a) Monitor and evaluate the preparation process and the integrity of the financial and non-financial information, as well as the control and management systems for financial and non-financial risks related to the company and, where appropriate, to the group – including operating, technological, legal, social, environmental, political and reputational risks or those related to corruption – reviewing compliance with regulatory requirements, the accurate demarcation of the consolidation perimeter, and the correct application of accounting principles.
- b) Monitor the independence of the unit handling the internal audit function; propose the selection, appointment and removal of the head of the internal audit service; propose the service's budget; approve or make a proposal for approval to the Board of the priorities and annual work programme of the internal audit unit, ensuring that it focuses primarily on the main risks the company is exposed to (including reputational risk); receive regular reports on its activities; and verify that senior management are acting on the findings and recommendations of its reports.

- c) Establish and supervise a mechanism that allows employees and other persons related to the company, such as Directors, shareholders, suppliers, contractors or subcontractors, to report irregularities of potential significance, including financial and accounting irregularities, or those of any other nature, related to the company, that they notice within the company or its group. This mechanism should guarantee the confidentiality and, in any event, provide for cases in which reports may be made anonymously, respecting the rights of the whistle-blower and the party being reported.
- d) In general, ensure that the internal control policies and systems established are applied effectively in practice.

2. With respect to the external auditor:

- a) In the event that the external auditor resigns, examining the circumstances leading to such resignation.
- b) Ensure that the remuneration of the external auditor does not compromise its quality or independence.
- c) Ensure that the company notifies any change of external auditor to the CNMV, accompanied by a statement of any disagreements with the outgoing auditor and the substance of same.
- d) Ensure that the external auditor has an annual meeting with the plenary session of the Board to inform it of the work undertaken and developments in the company's risk and accounting positions.
- e) Ensure that the company and the external auditor comply with applicable rules regarding the provision of services other than auditing, limits on the concentration of the auditor's business, and, in general, all other rules regarding auditors' independence.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

43. The audit committee should be empowered to meet with any company employee or executive, even ordering their appearance without the presence of another executive.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

44. The audit committee should be informed of any structural or corporate modifications planned by the company, so the committee can analyse them and report to the Board beforehand on their economic conditions and accounting impact and, in particular, where applicable, the proposed exchange ratio.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐ Not applicable ☐

45. The risk management and control policy should identify and determine at least:

- a) The different types of financial and non-financial risk the company is exposed to (including operational, technological, legal, social, environmental, political and reputational risks, included those related to corruption), with the inclusion under financial or economic risks of contingent liabilities and other off-balance-sheet risks.
- b) A risk control and management model based on different levels, of which a specialised risk committee will form part when industry regulations so provide or the company deems it appropriate.
- c) The risk level the company sees as acceptable.
- d) The measures in place to mitigate the impact of identified risk events should they occur.
- e) The internal control and reporting systems to be used to control and manage the above risks, including contingent liabilities and off-balance-sheet risks.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

46. Under the direct supervision of the audit committee or, as the case may be, a dedicated Board committee, companies should establish an internal risk management and control function, exercised by one of the company's internal departments or units that expressly has the following functions:

- a) Ensuring the proper functioning of risk management and control systems and, in particular, that they adequately identify, manage and quantify all material risks affecting the company.
- b) Actively participating in drawing up the risk strategy and in important decisions regarding risk management.
- c) To ensure that risk management and control systems are mitigating risks effectively within the framework of the policy drawn up by the Board of Directors.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

47. When appointing members of the nomination and remuneration committee – or of the nomination committee and the remuneration committee, if they are separate –, companies should procure that they have the adequate knowledge, skills and experience for the functions they are called on to perform and that the majority of such members are independent directors.

Complies ☒ Partially Complies ☐ Explain ☐

48. Large cap companies should have separate nomination and remuneration committees.

50. The compensation committee should operate independently and have the following functions in addition to those conferred by law:

- a) Propose to the Board the standard terms of senior executive contracts.
- b) Monitor compliance with the remuneration policy set by the Company.
- c) Periodically review the remuneration policy for Directors and Senior Executives, including share-based remuneration systems and their application, and ensure that their individual remuneration is proportionate to the amounts paid to other Directors and Senior Executives of the company.
- d) To ensure that conflicts of interest do not jeopardise the independence of any external advice provided to the committee.
- e) To verify the information on Director and senior executives' remuneration contained in the various corporate documents, including the annual report on Directors' remuneration.

52. The rules on composition and functioning of the supervision and control committees should be set out in the Board regulations and be consistent with those applicable to the Board committees required by law, in line with the preceding recommendations, including:

- a) The committees should be made up exclusively of non-executive Directors, with a majority of independent Directors.
- b) They should be chaired by independent Directors.
- c) The Board should appoint the members of such committees with regard to the knowledge, skills and experience of the Directors and each committee's mandate; discuss their proposals and reports; and the committees should report on their activities and the work performed at the first plenary session of the Board following each committee meeting.
- d) The committees may seek external advice, when they feel it necessary for the performance of their functions.
- e) Minutes should be taken of the committee meetings and a copy made available to all Board members.

In the case of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, it has been decided to reflect the contents of Article 529 [section fifteen] of the Capital Companies Law, which establishes that this committee will be made up of non-executive Directors appointed by the Board of Directors, at least two of whom must be independent Directors. However, the Committee's composition currently complies with this recommendation.

53. The task of supervising compliance with the policies and rules of the company in the environmental, social and corporate governance areas, and internal rules of conduct, should be assigned to one Board committee or split between several, which could be the audit committee, the nomination committee, a committee specialised in sustainability or corporate social responsibility, or another specialised committee established by the Board under its powers of self-organisation. And such a committee should be made up solely of non-executive Directors, the majority being independent and specifically assigned the following minimum functions.

In accordance with the Company's current Audit and Compliance Committee Regulations, the Audit and Compliance Committee of DIA is tasked with supervising compliance with the corporate social responsibility policy approved by the Board, which, for internal purposes, is regarded as the environmental, social and governance policy, which is currently approved by both the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors. Consequently, the Company considers that it has been able to satisfactorily comply with the objectives pursued by this recommendation.

The Board of Directors of the Company approved in January 2025 an update to the Regulations of the Audit and Compliance Committee, which formally incorporates, among other things, the content of this recommendation into the internal rules.

For its part, the Appointments and Remuneration Committee periodically evaluates and reviews the corporate governance system and the Company's environmental and social policy, in order to fulfil its mission of promoting the social interest and taking into account, as appropriate, the legitimate interests of the other stakeholders. It also supervises that the Company's practices in environmental and social matters are in line with the strategy and policy established.

54. The minimum functions referred to in the previous recommendation are as follows:

- a) Monitor compliance with the company's internal codes of conduct and corporate governance rules, and ensure that the corporate culture is aligned with its purpose and values.
- b) Oversee the application of the general policy regarding the communication of economic-financial, non-financial and corporate information, and regarding communication with shareholders and investors, proxy advisors and other stakeholders. Similarly, the way in which the entity communicates and relates with small and medium-sized shareholders should be monitored.
- c) Periodically evaluate the effectiveness of the company's corporate governance system and environmental and social policy to confirm that it is fulfilling its mission to promote the corporate interest and catering, as appropriate, to the legitimate interests of the remaining stakeholders.
- d) Ensure that the company's environmental and social practices are in accordance with the established strategy and policy.
- e) Monitor and evaluate the company's interaction with its stakeholder groups.

55. Environmental and social sustainability policies should identify and include at least:

- a) The principles, commitments, objectives and strategy regarding shareholders, employees, clients, suppliers, social welfare issues, the environment, diversity, fiscal responsibility, respect for human rights and the prevention of corruption and other illegal conducts.

- b) The methods or systems for monitoring compliance with policies, associated risks and their management.
- c) The mechanisms for supervising non-financial risk, including that related to ethical aspects and business conduct.
- d) Channels of communication, participation and dialog with stakeholders.
- e) Responsible communication practices that impede the manipulation of data and protect integrity and honour.

56. Director remuneration should be sufficient to attract and retain individuals with the desired profile and remunerate the time commitment, competencies and responsibility that the office demands, but not so high as to compromise the independent judgment of non-executive directors.

57. Variable remuneration linked to company performance and the director's performance, as well as the award of shares, options or rights over shares or instruments linked to the share value and long-term savings schemes, such as pension plans, retirement systems or other employee welfare systems, should be confined to executive directors.

The company may consider the award of shares as remuneration for non-executive directors provided they retain such shares until the end of their term of office. This condition will not apply to any shares that the director must dispose of to defray costs related to their acquisition.

58. In the case of variable awards, remuneration policies should include limits and specific technical safeguards to ensure they reflect the professional performance of the beneficiaries and not simply the general progress of the markets or the company's sector of activity or other similar circumstances.

In particular, variable remuneration items should meet the following conditions:

- a) Be subject to predetermined and measurable performance criteria that factor the risk assumed to obtain a given outcome.
- b) Promote the long-term sustainability of the company and include non-financial criteria that are relevant for the company's long-term value, such as compliance with its internal rules and procedures and its risk control and management policies.

- c) Be focused on achieving a balance between the delivery of short, medium and long-term objectives, such that performance-related pay rewards ongoing achievement, maintained over a sufficient period of time to appreciate its contribution to long-term value creation. This will ensure that performance measurement is not based solely on one-off, occasional or extraordinary events.

59. The payment of the variable components of remuneration is subject to sufficient verification that previously established performance, or other, conditions have been effectively met. Entities should include in their annual Directors' remuneration report the criteria relating to the time required and methods for such verification, depending on the nature and characteristics of each variable component.

Additionally, entities should consider establishing a reduction clause ('malus') based on deferral for a sufficient period of the payment of part of the variable components that implies total or partial loss of this remuneration in the event that prior to the time of payment an event occurs that makes this advisable.

62. Following the awarding of shares, options or financial instruments corresponding to the remuneration systems, executive Directors should not be able to transfer their ownership or exercise them until a period of at least three years has elapsed.

Except for the case in which the Director maintains, at the time of the transfer or exercise, a net economic exposure to the variation in the price of the shares for a market value equivalent to an amount of at least twice their fixed annual remuneration through the ownership of shares, options or other financial instruments.

The foregoing shall not apply to the shares that the Director needs to dispose of to meet the costs related to their acquisition or, upon favourable assessment of the nomination and remuneration committee to address an extraordinary situation.

64. Payments for the termination or cancellation of the contract should not exceed an amount equivalent to two years of the Director's total annual remuneration and should not be paid until the company confirms that they have met the criteria or conditions established for its receipt.

For the purposes of this recommendation, payments for contractual termination or cancellation include any payments whose accrual or payment obligation arises as a consequence of or on the occasion of the termination of the contractual relationship that linked the Director with the company, including previously unconsolidated amounts for long-term savings systems and the amounts paid under post-contractual non-compete undertakings.

Auditor's report on the "Information Related to the System of Internal Control Over Financial Reporting (ICFR)" of DISTRIBUIDORA INTERNACIONAL DE ALIMENTACIÓN, S.A. for the year 2024

AUDITOR´S REPORT ON THE "INFORMATION RELATED TO THE SYSTEM OF INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING (ICFR)"

Translation of a report and information originally issued in Spanish. In the event of discrepancy, the Spanish-language version prevails

To the Board of Directors of Distribuidora Internacional de Alimentación, S.A.:

In accordance with the request from the Board of Directors of Distribuidora Internacional de Alimentación, S.A. (hereinafter the Entity) and our engagement letter dated February 5, 2025, we have performed certain procedures on the "ICFR related information" attached in section F of the Annual Corporate Governance Report of Distribuidora Internacional de Alimentación, S.A., which summarizes the internal control procedures of the Entity in relation to the annual financial information.

The Directors are responsible for adopting the appropriate measures in order to reasonably guarantee the implementation, maintenance and supervision of an adequate internal control system as well as developing improvements to that system and preparing and establishing the content of the accompanying ICFR related information attached.

It should be noted that irrespective of the quality of the design and operability of the internal control system adopted by the Entity in relation to its annual financial information, it can only provide reasonable, rather than absolute assurance with respect to the objectives pursued, due to the inherent limitations to any internal control system.

In the course of our audit work on the financial statements and pursuant to the Technical Auditing Standards, the sole purpose of our assessment of the entity´s internal control was to enable us to establish the nature, timing and extent of the audit procedures to be applied to the Entity´s financial statements. Therefore, our assessment of the internal control performed for the purposes of the audit of the financial statements was not sufficiently extensive to enable us to express a specific opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control over the regulated annual financial information.

For the purpose of issuing this report, we exclusively performed the specific procedures described below and indicated in the Guidelines on the Auditors' report relating to information on the Internal Control over Financial Reporting of Listed Companies, published by the Spanish National Securities Market Commission (CNMV) on its website, which establishes the work to be performed, the minimum scope thereof and the content of this report. Given that the scope of these procedures was limited and substantially less than that of an audit or a review of the internal control system, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness thereof, or its design or operating effectiveness, in relation to Entity's annual financial information for 2024 described in the ICFR related information attached. Consequently, had we performed additional procedures to those established by the Guidelines mentioned above or had we carried out an audit or a review of the internal control over the regulated annual financial reporting information, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

Likewise, since this special engagement does not constitute an audit of the financial statements in accordance with prevailing audit regulations in Spain, we do not express an audit opinion in the terms provided for therein.

The procedures performed were as follows:

1. Read and understand the information prepared by the Entity in relation to the ICFR - which is provided in the Annual Corporate Governance Report disclosure information included in the Directors' Report - and assess whether such information addresses all the required information which will follow the minimum content detailed in section F, relating to the description of the ICFR, as per the model established by CNMV Circular nº 5/2013 dated June 12, 2013 and subsequent amendments, the most recent one being CNMV Circular 3/2021 of September 28, 2021 (hereinafter, the CNMV Circulars).
2. Make enquiries of personnel in charge of preparing the information described in point 1 above in order to: (i) Obtain an understanding of the process followed in its preparation; (ii) Obtain information which will allow us to assess whether the terminology used is adapted to the definitions provided in the reference framework; (iii) Obtain information on whether the control procedures described are implemented and in use by the Entity.
3. Review the explanatory documentation supporting the information described in point 1 above, which should basically include that which is provided directly to those responsible for preparing the ICFR descriptive information. In this respect, the aforementioned documentation includes related reports prepared by the Internal Audit Department, senior management, and other internal and external experts providing support to the Audit and Compliance Committee.
4. Compare the information described in point 1 above with our knowledge of Entity's ICFR obtained as a result of performing the external audit procedures within the framework of the audit of the financial statements.
5. Read the minutes of the meetings held by the Board of Directors, Audit and Compliance Committee and other Entity committees in order to assess the consistency between the ICFR issues addressed therein and the information provided in point 1 above.
6. Obtain the representation letter related to the work performed, duly signed by the personnel in charge of preparing the information discussed in point 1 above.

As a result of the procedures performed, no inconsistencies or issues were observed that might have an impact on ICFR related information.

This report was prepared exclusively within the framework of the requirements stipulated in article 540 of the Consolidated text of the Corporate Enterprises Act and CNMV Circulars on ICFR description in Annual Corporate Governance Reports.
